STORM.

Windmills, Trees and Barns Blown Down.

The San Joaquin River Breaks Loose Near Lathrop.

Slavin Is Recognized Champion of England.

Silcott and His Paramour Fled to Montreal.

Special to The Tribune by the Western Associated Press.

IN THE SACRAMENTO VALLEY.

A Tremendous Windstorm in Yuba County.

MARYSVILLE, December 24.—About 10 o'clock last night a terrific storm sprang up in this city and blew for several hours doing great damage to trees in yards and public squares. This morning the farmers who have been in town report the total destruction of many wind mills and small barns. The fruit growers say that many limbs have been broken from young trees and also from some of the oldest ones, and that present indications are that the loss will be heavy.

THREE INCHES.

Heavy Rainfall in a Single Night at Santa Barbara.

SANTA BARBARA, December 25.—The storm last night was the heaviest of the season. Over three inches of rain fell during the night and it is still raining hard. The trains are all delayed by the land slides. "Brisk," a small sloop owned at this place, parted her cables and went ashore last night and was totally wrecked. Of three men on board James Forbes of Los Angeles, aged 23, was drowned. His body is not yet recovered.

A BROKEN LEVEE.

The San Joaquin Breaks Loose Near Lathrop.

LATHROP, December 24.—The levee this side of the San Joaquin river, five miles northwest of this place, broke this forenoon flooding G's Menter's land. It is impossible to tell what damage will ensue at present.

CHAMPION OF ENGLAND.

Slavin Recognized as Such by the Pelican Club.

LONDON, December 24—At a meeting of the Pelican Club last night it was resolved to send a letter to Slavin, the Australian pugilist expressing sympathy for him in the treatment accorded him in the fight with Smith and admiration for his courage. The club decided to recognize Slavin as champion of England and present him with a belt and purse. Fleming, who acted as Smith's umpire, and who is a member of the club, was suspended from membership pending explanation. In an interview Fleming said he was not acquainted with the roughs who caused the trouble, but that they were doubtless friends whom Smith hired to interrupt the fight in the event of its going against him.

SILCOTT LOCATED.

Accompanied by His Paramour He Went to Montreal.

MONTREAL, December 24.—The police have discovered Silcott, the absconding Treasurer of the United States House of Representatives. Accompanied by his paramour, Herminie Thibault, he arrived in Montreal on Saturday, the 7th inst. Hermime remained until Friday, when she left for New York.

THE PRIBYLOFF ISLAND.

A New Fur Seal Contract to be Made This Year.

WASHINGTON, December 24—Secretary Windom will this afternoon issue an advertisement inviting proposals for exclusive right to take fur seals upon the islands of St. Paul and St. George, Alaska. The lease with the Alaska Commercial Company expires May 1st.

TO STAMP OUT DIPHTHERIA.

A Russian Settlement in Dakota in a Bad Way.

ABERDEEN, S. D., December 24.—The Superintendent of the State Board of Health has gone to Eureka, the center of the great Russian settlements, to take measures for the suppression of the malignant diphtheria now raging among the Russians. Thirty deaths have already occurred.

J. W. MACKAY

Buys a Small Telegraph Line for $155,000.

NEW YORK, December 24.—The Commercial Telegraph Company was today sold at Sheriff's sale to John W. Mackay and Edward C. Pratt of the Nevada Bank for $155,000.

WHOLESALE.

A Man Who Partially Succeeded in Killing His Family.

OTTAWA, Ont., December 24.—At Lange Gardien last night W. Ford killed his wife and attacked his daughter and sister-in-law. Failing in his attempt to kill them, he fired the house and cut his throat.

CORN FOR FUEL.

Kansas Farmers Burning it as Cheaper Than Coal.

TOPEKA, Kan., December 24—A State official who has returned from a trip throughout northwest Kansas, says that thousands of bushels of corn are being burned for fuel. In some instances the market price of corn is less than 15 cents, while coal is 25 to 35 cents. The corn makes excellent fuel and the crop is immense and is causing a transportation blockade.

Grain Markets.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 24.—Wheat dull; buyer, season, 136¼; buyer, '90, 130¾. Barley, very dull; buyer, season, 90.

Bats.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 24.—The forecast for California till 8 A. M. Wednesday, rain.

THAT DAY AT ANGELS.

News Received of the Buried Miners at the Camp.

Sixteen Dead Men in the Shaft—Three Leave Families—Digging for the Bodies.

SAN ANDREAS, December 24.—A correspondent who has just returned from the scene of the mining disaster at Angels gives the following facts:

The accident occurred in the Utica mine on the 400 foot level, and the cave carried all the stone, timber, and earth in its way. Nineteen miners were at work there. Without a moment's warning the mass of timbers and rocks fell, crushing the miners below. Three men only escaped. The remaining miners, sixteen in all, were pinioned by the falling mass of debris, and could not escape. Immediately the word was sent to the top that a cave had occured, and men were sent down the shaft to render all assistance possible. When these reached the scene of the disaster it was found that there was no possible hope, as the men were probably crushed to death. It was but a few moments until the news of the accident was sent over town, and friends and relatives gathered at the mouth of the shaft, eager to hear any news from those below. From time to time as news was brought up to the surface the scene was heartrending in the extreme. Three of the unfortunates were married: Tom Knuckey, who leaves a wife, George Williams, who leaves a wife and four children; J. Brady, a married man, whose family is not known. The names of the others are; Nick Eucich, B. Segal, Peter Pennie, C. Bertro. Paul Oevlovich, John Butaltto, John Toboco, C. A. Pollard, Joseph Curnow, John Martin, Mitchell Brondwich, James Casey, William Vincent. At the present writing two dead men are in sight, but it will take at least twenty-four hours to reach them on account of the mass of rock and timbers. The superintendent says they will have to run forty feet before they can reach the first body, and that it will be a month before the last of them is taken out.

THE EVE OF THE FEAST.

Christmas Services in the Churches That Observe the Day.

On Christmas eve, 1889, the sun sinks upon a deluged State. The people are wet, but in a state of moderate contentment, expecting to rise on the morrow with merry greetings for relatives and friends, prepared to enjoy the holiday.

Christmas entertainments will be held, most of them in home circles and the churches. The charitable have opened their purses and no person in the State need be hungry or cold or shelterless. In this city the Oakland Times spurred the charitable to give money to provide Christmas turkeys for poor families. By the efforts of that paper more than $600 were contributed and 250 or more turkeys were sent to the needy.

Services in celebration of the day set apart to be observed as the anniversary of the birth of the infant Jesus, who is Christ the Lord and Savior, will be held in the Roman Catholic and Protestant Episcopal churches at the usual hours of morning service.

At the Church of the Immaculate Conception high mass will be celebrated and the choir will give elaborate music. Rev. Father McSweeney will officiate at the Church of St. Francis de Sales.

The usual Christmas services will be held at St. Anthony's Church; St. Patrick's Church, and the churches in the suburbs.

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church the rector, Rev. Hobart Chetwood, will officiate, and the new choir, under the direction of Henry O. Hunt, will sing festival music.

At St. John's Church Christmas music will be given. Miss Hale is the organist. Rev. Dr. Akerly is the rector of the church.

The Rev. Dr. H. D. Lathrop will preach at the Church of the Advent, East Oakland, and the choir will contribute appropriate music.

Rev. J. A. Emery will conduct the Christmas services at St. Andrews Church.

A Christmas day service will be held in the chapel of the First Congregational Church, corner of Thirteenth and Clay streets, tomorrow at 11 o'clock. The pastor will preach a short sermon, and with other singing Miss Dyer and Miss Fox will sing in solo and duet. The chapel is very commodious. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The churches are decorated with evergreens and red berries and symbolic designs and scriptural texts.

Masses will be said tomorrow at the Church of the Immaculate Conception (Rev. Father King, pastor), at 5, 6, 6:30, 7:20, 8 and 9 o'clock, and at 10:30 A. M. Haydn's Mass will be sung. At 7:30 o'clock in the evening the regular service will be held.

At the Church of St. Francis de Sales, Father McSweeney, pastor, masses will be held at 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

Announcements.

The Elite Social Club will give a masquerade ball at Cavalry Hall tonight. The grand march will begin at 9:30 o'clock.

The Oakland Turn Verein will hold a Christmas tree festival at Germania Hall tomorrow evening.

Professor Woolf will give a grab bag party at his academy, corner Twelfth and Harrison streets, this evening.

A Christmas tree festival will be given at the First Free Baptist Church on Twenty-first street this evening.

—The engagement of Robert Cannon, formerly of the Santa Rosa Republican, and Miss Kate Eagleson, recently of Santa Rosa, both now residing in Oakland, is announced. The wedding will take place in the near future.

Busy Clerks.

The deputies in the Tax Collector's office are overworked at present, owing to the heavy amounts paid in for taxes. They worked until 2 o'clock last Sunday morning, and all day Sunday. The same pleasant prospect greets them for Christmas day as well.

Hatless and Three Years Old.

Herbert Maulders, described was "three years old—no hat" is missing from the residence of his parents at 270 Ninth street.

A FULLER BLAST.

The Wind Ruffians Upon Land and Sea.

THE NIGHT HAS BEEN VERY UNRULY.

The Wind Shaked Surge on the High and Monstrous Main Sweeps the Ferry Steamers.

All the cataracts
Of heaven, set open on the earth shall pour
Rain day and night.
—Milton, not the Greely Bureau.

The storm that fell last night upon Councilman Brosnahan who lost his umbrella and also on the unjust was one that has rarely been equalled in its fury, and Mr. Brosnahan's forcible remarks upon the theft of his umbrella, were justified. The rain fell and the wind blew. Everybody is used to the rain, but the wind and the cold are not so new. It is bad enough to navigate an umbrella in an ordinary storm, but in a gale of wind it becomes an impossibility. Those who were out on the streets last evening after the storm began were soon driven to cover, and many unfortunates who were compelled to fight their way against the efforts of the elements had an unhappy and a very damn time.

In these constant rains the railroads have suffered most, and the South Pacific Coast Railway through the Santa Cruz mountains has had to take the worst of the storm. This road has been washed out and caved on, and sunk out of sight. There were heavy slides there on Saturday and Sunday, after nearly a week of idleness, but four work trains and many hundred men had so cleared the track that orders were issued last night to run trains through to Santa Cruz to-day.

But the rain has no respect for railroad orders, and last night the road tumbled to the rackets. In all probabilities it will take a week to clear up the result of last night's storm.

As for the Boulder Creek branch—well, there is no Boulder Creek branch. There are as many washouts on the road as there are miles and with the bridges that are gone weeks will elapse before the branch can be operated. At present the road has been abandoned and no attempt is being made to rebuild it, all the energies of the company being devoted to their main line.

On the main line there are half a dozen slides and washouts and the running schedule until further notice will be: 8:15 A. M. train runs to Alma, 2:15 train to San Jose, 4:15 train to Los Gatos. All freight trains south of San Jose are abandoned and no passenger trains run further south than Alma.

There was a slight slide just north of Los Gatos this morning, but this was cleared up with about an hours delay. The principal damage is south of Glenwood and at Laurel, the highest point on the road. At Felton 3.75 inches of rain fell yesterday.

In three weeks this road has been open for through traffic for just two days. Conductor Colegrove took the last through train over the road three weeks ago. It was the afternoon train from Santa Cruz, and it was delayed half an hour by a small slide at Laurel. That night the road closed, and save for two days last week has been closed ever since.

"This is nearly as bad as the first winter after the road was opened," said Mr. Colegrove. "When the rains came the whole mountain just slid down on the road, and for eighteen days we worked clearing the track. Then we got two trains through, one each way, and that night there was more rain and the road closed up again, and I ate my Christmas dinner after shovelling land slides all day. It was closed for eighteen days more. This is the only real bad season that we have had on the road since then."

There has been no damage done on the San Leandro marsh, but the water there and at Alvarado has frequently covered the tracks. At Alviso there has been some small damage to the bridges, but this was quickly repaired.

The Southern Pacific Company has suffered considerably, and if this continues will suffer more. All the overland trains were late today. The Central Pacific overland train, due here this evening, had not been heard from at the pier. It was lost in the snow drifts of the plains of the Humboldt, and there is no telling when it will arrive, for snow is sixteen feet deep on the Summit. The early overland train is six hours late and is trying to force its way through the drifts behind a rotary snow plow. Snow is falling steadily and trouble of a far more serious nature than has yet been experienced is expected. Many of the snowsheds were burned last summer, and many more are old and worn and the Southern Pacific Company has been depending on snow plows to keep the track clear. Some of the old snowsheds have been crushed by the weight of snow, and this obstruction is causing the delays to the trains.

As usual, the Oregon division is washed out, and the Oregon train was six hours late today. The Southern overland is four hours late.

There was a slide at Eckley's last night that has closed up the east bound track, and at Tormey, this side of Vallejo Junction, the road was washed out, causing an hour's delay. One hundred and fifty men and several work trains are at work keeping the track clear.

The wind blew a gale last night, and the bay was so rough that the 10:30 and 11:30 trips by the Southern Pacific Coast Railway ferry were abandoned. Early in the evening, about 6:30 or 7 o'clock, the steamer Oakland broke her rudder and was laid off, and the Piedmont had to make hourly trips as best it could. All of the trips were more or less delayed on each route owing to heavy winds, and in some cases the boats were fifteen minutes late.

Both the Woodard Short line and the California and Nevada have been damaged by this rain.

The rainfall to 7 A. M. today was as follows:

	24 hours.	Season.	Last season.
Oakland	1.19	21.89	1.24
Haywards	1.12	.....	.....
Niles	.93	19.31	5.58

Hutchison's rain gauge at 7 o'clock this morning showed that since 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon 1.16 inches of rain had fallen, making a total for the season of 22.70.

THE STREET RAILROADS.

The Tubbs Hotel Line Delayed as Usual—The Meetz Water Line.

As usual traffic on the Tubbs. Hotel line was blocked during the time of the heaviest travel last evening. One car ran off the track on the Twelfth street dam about 7 o'clock and all the other cars were delayed. Passengers were transferred from one car to another after a delay of an hour. G. Y. Loring, the superintendent of the road, is anxious to continue the work of rebuilding as rapidly as possible and curses the weather that delays the work even more vigorously than the passengers who are delayed. Excavations have been made from Eleventh avenue to Thirteenth avenue for the new ties and stringers, and the eastern terminus of the road is temporarily Eleventh avenue. The new ties and stringers are piled along the sides of Twelfth street, ready to be placed in position as soon as element weather permits work. The old rails will be reversed, the flanges being turned outward.

The troubles of the patrons of the cemetery and Piedmont horse car line are related in the department of this paper devoted to the interesting proceedings of the City Council.

The sturdy San Pablo avenue street cars are not delayed by storms.

The Fourteenth street cars have been running regularly, but the trench made for the cable road in Sixteenth street, near the railroad station, is a great obstruction to traffic.

The Highland Park street cars wind their way over the hills to the Hermitage and maintain about the schedule time.

Theodor Meetz's Alameda street cars were in danger of floating away yesterday while making their peregrinations across the marsh. The high tide completely covered the track and the Webster street railway, the water touching the steps of the cars.

THE EASTERN SHORE.

The Banks of the Tidal Canal Caved and Cars Buried.

The recent rains have done considerable damage to the tidal canal, which is to connect East Oakland basin with San Leandro bay. At the point where the diggers were last at work, the bank on the south side has caved in, covering the railroad on which the dirt is carried, for about one hundred yards, and burying six or eight cars almost out of sight. Fully one hundred and fifty yards of the track further east is submerged by water, although the steam pump is working day and night to keep it out. It will take several days' work after the rains are over to clear the track and dig the cars out before work can be continued on the canal.

The East Oakland cotton mills have been troubled with the water backing up in the rear of the building, but a dam has been built to prevent further trouble in that direction, and most of the water has been drained away.

At Twenty-third avenue the Southern Pacific company has several men employed digging ditches to run the water from the track.

IN THE COUNTY.

Farmer Overacker Upon the Condition of Weather at Niles.

"No damage from the storm at Niles," said Farmer Overacker, clerk of Judge Gibson's department of the Superior Court. "For my part it cannot rain too much on my farm. As a matter of fact Niles can stand a whole lot of rain. The storm last night did not do any damage that I could see. The streams about our town are running banks full, and some of the smaller ones are overflowing but when they are not doing any damage. As for the fruit trees in our district, why, this storm will not injure them at all; in fact it will do them good, as the water will reach the tap roots."

San Leandro.

"Yes, the storm struck us pretty lively last night," said S. Huff of San Leandro. "From 7 o'clock last night until 7 o'clock this morning we had 1½ inches of rain. The wind whistled and considerable damage was done to our fences and our fruit trees. Many of the orange trees were blown down and a great many oranges were blown from the trees. The San Leandro creek is booming but it is not at all dangerous. From Lake Chabot water has been let out since the 20th just as fast as it comes into the reservoir. By this means, you see, they get rid of the water that has been penned up and have fresh water in its stead. I expect that in a short time we shall have better water than we have had for years. Now about the crops. Of course this rain, while it will not be a damage to the farmers, still it will delay the crops."

Alvarado Under Water.

Reports state that the town of Alvarado is under water, and the residents are compelled to do their Christmas shopping at Granger's coal yard in boats. The water is running down the principal streets, and nearly all the residents are compelled to remain within doors. The water is still rising, and it will not be surprising, if the rain continues, to hear of some of the houses floating away.

Mission San Jose.

"We had a storm at Mission San Jose," remarked Public Administrator James Stanley. "But you can say that we are high up in that part of the county, and consequently we are not damaged by floods. However, the residents of the Mission watched with a great deal of interest to see if the new church spire would withstand the storm of last night. The spire is the highest in the county and is on the oldest church in the county, the old Mission Church, and it has stood the test and still braves the storm."

Centerville.

"It was a most unholy storm at Centerville," said Attorney Thomas Huxley. "Why, the rain came right through the windows of my house. The large tank owned by Greggory was blown down, and many fences were laid low. That is all the damage I heard of before I left this morning."

Farmer Gibson Braves the Storm.

Farmer Gibson, who is Judge of the Superior Court when not farming, braved the storm this morning and came to the Courthouse to hold court. He was an hour late, however, and stated that he had great difficulty in getting over the muddy roads. "Hays' canyon is all right," remarked his Honor as he took his seat upon the bench.

Snow on the Hills.

Snow is visible, when the clouds permit vision, on the hills near Mission San Jose and on the Santa Cruz mountains. Diablo also has a white cap to cover his forked tongue on Christmas.

A Bridge in Danger.

County Clerk Boardman has received word that the bridge over the San Lorenzo creek, near Haywards, is in danger of giving away. The creek is running banks full, and if the water comes much higher the bridge will surely go. Mr. Boardman has requested to be immediately notified should the bridge collapse.

A Bridge Gone.

The bridge across San Pablo creek beyond General Wagner's place was washed away by the recent storm.

ONE OR TWO MILES.

The Law About Liquor Near the University.

WAR AMONG BERKELEY SALOON MEN.

The District Attorney Believes That the Law Fixing the Two Mile Limit Is Repealed.

The quarrel in and around Berkeley, concerning the limit within which saloons may be maintained and liquors sold, is taking on more complicated phases daily, and promises to develop a deal of confusion before matters are settled.

The difficulty arises over two apparently conflicting statutes, one of which fixes the limit at one mile and the other at two miles.

Those who are so unfortunate as to come within the one mile limit insist that the two-mile statute is in force, and through a pure spirit of bitterness demand that law.

On the other hand, the proprietors of saloons outside the one-mile limit and within the two-mile circle, contend that the two-mile statute is not in force.

District Attorney Reed in discussing the matter this afternoon leaned to the latter conclusion. In regard to the two sections of the code bearing on the subject, the facts are these: In December, 1873, the Legislature enacted a law prohibiting the sale of "any malt, spirituous, or other alcoholic liquors" within two miles of the university. Subsequently the matter got into the Supreme Court, and the law was declared constitutional.

On April 3, 1876, the Legislature passed another law fixing the prohibitory limit at one mile, and using the language "any vinous or alcoholic liquors."

It will be seen that the phraseology of the two sections is slightly different. The one mile victims seize upon this difference to argue that there is therefore no conflict, and the subsequent enactment does not annul the first.

The District Attorney however, is inclined to take the other position, while the difference in language of the two sections, he thinks, is obviously the same and would be so construed by any court. Taking this view of it, the last enactment would certainly annul the former, and he says he will not attempt to prosecute under the first named law.

In brief, the District Attorney believes that no State law prohibites the sale of beer or other infoxicating liquors between an area of land between circles one drawn at a distance of one mile and the other a distance of two miles from the seat of learning maintained at Berkeley by the State.

MISS CAMPBELL'S REASONS.

The Resignation From a Position in the School Department.

The following is the letter from Miss Grace Campbell to the Board of Education, explaining fully the reasons for her resignation of the position in the Oakland School Department to which she was recently elected:

To the Honorable, the Board of Education of the City of Oakland—GENTLEMEN: I thank you very sincerely for my election to a position in the Oakland School Department.

Having been away from home for several years, except during vacations, I very greatly desired it. Since my election by your honorable body, however, the pressure has been very great on the part of the patrons of my present school, the principal and the Board of Trustees for me to remain in my present position. The latter have unanimously offered me a very material increase of salary and other inducements.

It has been shown me, moreover, that for me to leave in the middle of the school year would be detrimental to the interests of the school.

After consulting with parents and friends, and carefully weighing the subject, I have seen my duty in the direction of remaining in my present position, at least till the end of the current school year.

Therefore, again expressing to you my sense of deep obligation and genuine appreciation for the consideration shown me, I very respectfully resign the position to which I was so recently elected.

GRACE CAMPBELL.

Oakland, December 23, 1889.

WIRES DOWN.

The Storm Has Played Havoc With Electrical Communication.

The storm of the past twenty-four hours has played havoc with the telegraph and telephone wires in the city and vicinity. The Western Union Company reports several crosses and grounds on some of its longer circuits, and Manager Fleming of the Telephone Company states that about fifty of his wires in this city are in trouble.

The fire alarm and police wires, according to Superintendent Carleton, "were put up to stay," and except a few grounds on the circuits caused by the trees and other lines falling on them, no damage has been caused.

CABLE CARS STOPPED.

A Vexatious Delay on the San Pablo Avenue Line.

The breaking of a pulley near the turn table of the San Pablo avenue cable at Seventh street this afternoon caused a delay of nearly half an hour in the running of cars.

THE PIEDMONT DISABLED.

Ferry Traffic on the Broad Gauge Route Delayed.

The ferry steamer Piedmont was disabled at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Oakland Pier and traffic is delayed.

Ducks in the Watts Tract.

A. Hawes, the man who hunted ducks near the city pound, and was arrested for discharging firearms within the city limits, was tried in the police court and found guilty this morning. He will be sentenced on Thursday. In the meantime the prisoner is out on bail.

The Man in the Box Car.

John Flowers, the man who was found in a box car in West Oakland in possession of a quantity of jewelry, and was taken to Stockton for trial for burglary, yesterday pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve five and one-half years in Folsom prison. The jewelry was stolen from a residence near French camp.

And They Need It Most.

Christmas this year is a hard time with the poor street laborers. They have not been able to do much work of late, on account of the bad weather, and now they have been notified that all the other city employes but them will receive their money before the holidays.

Speaking of Money.

The city treasury has been greatly enriched by the payment of taxes by the following heaviest taxpayers: Union National Bank, $13,006 81; Southern Pacific Company, $14,861 78; Hibernia Savings and Loan Society, $4496 05.

ALAMEDA.

John Jacob Astor Arrested for Stealing Bread.

There will be a Christmas festival tomorrow afternoon and evening at Harmonie Hall. There will be a Christmas tree, an entertainment, and dancing.

A. O. Zingg failed to appear against James Timothy, the horse jockey, whom he had arrested on a charge of embezzlement, and Justice Ryler dismissed the charge.

City Recorder Radcliff was to be removed by the Masonic lodge to Dr. Woolsey's hospital in Oakland this morning, but owing to the cold weather it was thought that he could not stand the journey.

Louis Debrish is the choice of the Board of Education for principal of the West End school. He has been principal of the San Rafael school for the past four years. He comes to Alameda well recommended and takes the place of E. C. Snyder.

After a trial of one term E. C. Snyder has been removed from the position of principal of the West End school by the Board of Education, and a new principal will be placed in charge at the beginning of the new term. He will be selected at the next meeting of the board.

The City Trustees did not hold any meeting last evening, and Messrs. Mastrick and Neal, the only trustees present, adjourned until this morning. If a quorum is present a short meeting will be held to grant an extension of time on the contracts of the Alameda Macadamizing Company.

A man named Bliss spent yesterday collecting driftwood on the shore of the San Leandro bay back of Captain Thompson's place. A. F. May, a Portuguese, lives on the property and thought that he was entitled to leave. Bliss, instead of going, jumped upon May and gave him a severe beating. Bliss was arrested for battery, and May will carry around a black eye for some days to come.

John Jacob Astor was arrested yesterday on a charge of petty larceny. The complaint was sworn to by Joseph Busch, a groceryman on High street. It seems that Busch has been missing of late some loaves of bread left by the baker early in the morning at the door of his store. Yesterday morning he concealed himself behind the door, armed with a shotgun. Astor came along, picked up three loaves and started to walk away. Busch stepped out from the store, and pointing the gun at him, ordered him to stop. Astor readily obeyed, and Busch escorted him to the city prison. Astor maintains his innocence of every intent to commit a crime and denies that he took bread from the store before this morning. He is a plasterer and earns $4 a day. According to his story he says that he had no bread at home, and being in a hurry to have breakfast and catch the train for San Francisco where he is working, took the bread, intending to pay for it afterwards.

Astor was found guilty yesterday afternoon. He was defended by R. B. Tappan and was tried before Justice Byler. The Justice failed to bring out from the witnesses the value of the bread and from whom it was stolen, and when the case closed the attorney for the accused moved for a dismissal of the charge for these reasons. Instead of granting the request the Justice reopened the case, proved these points, and found Astor guilty as charged. This angered Tappan, who told the Justice that in all criminal cases which he may hereafter have before him he will demand a jury, for then he knows he will get a fair "deal." Tappan intends to appeal the case to the Superior Court.

SAID ON THE STREETS.

When Councilman Hackett said of Councilman Evans at the meeting last evening, "Mr. Evans says what are not facts and what he knows are not facts" he used about as strong language as one man can of another. Mr. Evans smiled and said nothing.

The heavy rains on Saturday and yesterday diverted at least $20,000 that would have been paid into the safes of the Broadway storekeepers had the weather been clear. This difference is never made up. Delay begets indifference, and many presents intended to be sent today were not purchased. The storekeepers are having a dull Christmas. The employes of the Southern Pacific Company are not paid for December before Christmas this year, and hence the railroad men have no money to spend. The sales of the storekeepers are $40,000 less than they would have been had fair weather prevailed, and had the pay car arrived here before Christmas.

Rudolph Hering, the distinguished sanitary engineer employed by the city, sat in the City Clerk's office last evening and listened patiently to the proceedings of the City Council, taking occasional intellectual refreshment by perusing the report of Engineers Morgan and Allardt upon proposed public improvements. Mr. Hering has a strong, intellectual eye, in fact, two strong, intellectual eyes. But he wears glasses and has an engineering look, like Julius Le Conte.

The letter carrier, who trudges through the mud with the mails, is entitled to remembrance by those whom he serves faithfully. Let the postman know that Christmas is here.

The stories of the pneumonia and asphyxia cars of the Piedmont line, related to the City Council last night, might have interesting correspondencies in the stories of the people of East Oakland who use the square wheeled, "never-get-there" cars of the Twelfth street line.

Hiram Bailey used to say that they could not raise any crops in the Livermore valley unless they got two feet of rain. This year the rain appears to be getting there with both feet.

County Buildings.

The Hall of Records has withstood the storm without any damage. No leaks have been discovered, and this is accounted for by the fact that the roof was recently painted.

The Courthouse, however, has not fared as well. Several leaks have been discovered in the roof. In the courtroom of Department 3 of the Superior Court the water came through the ceiling, but did no material damage.

DID HE LIGHT OUT?

Can Any One Tell What Has Become of Moses?

WARREN HAS LEFT HIS POSITION.

The Man Who Is Charged by Annie Wright to Be the Father of the Boy Born in the Hack.

Moses Warren, the man who is accused by Annie Wright of the paternity of her baby boy who was born in a hack, resides at 1210 Broadway and has been employed by the White Sewing Machine Company for some time past. But is employed there no longer, having left this occupation this morning.

A TRIBUNE reporter called on his wife, Mrs. B. Warren, who has a millinery store on Broadway, who informed him, in answer to a question as to his whereabouts, that he took breakfast with her this morning, but she had not seen him since, and does not know where he may be found.

Chief of Police Tompkins says that he has seen nothing of Mr. Warren since Saturday, and does not know where he is.

From all appearances Mr. Warren has sought a drier climate, but if he is still in this city, and the protestations of innocence made to his wife are true, it is about time that he should appear to assert to the public his innocence.

Mrs. Warren knows of the statement made by Annie Wright of the event that happened in San Francisco one night last spring when Warren took Annie to the theater. They missed the last boat home and, according to the statement of the girl, Warren took her to a hotel and told her he could get but one room for both of them. The child was born in December.

Mrs. Warren's information about the statement of the girl is said to have been gained first from the letter of Chief of Police Tompkins asking Warren to come to see him.

The Chief of Police wanted to see him to ask him to support the child, if the girl's assertions about the paternity of little Moses of the hack are true. If they are true, and the father neglects to provide for the boy the chief suggests prosecution under the law passed at the last session of the Legislature by the efforts of the strong moralist from Los Angeles, Stephen M. White, Senator from the broken boomland.

Mrs. Warren, naturally, declines to say anything about the troublous matter except to advise inquisitive persons to ask her husband.

HE DID NOT LIGHT OUT.

But He Keeps His Light Carefully Under a Bushel.

Moses Warren was seen this afternoon on the street with his wife, and when approached by a TRIBUNE reporter he positively denied his identity, stating that his name is not Warren.

THE LAST SERVICE.

Funeral of John Fredericks in West Oakland This Forenoon.

The funeral of John Fredericks, who died on Saturday afternoon last, took place at the residence, 933 Peralta street, this forenoon at 11 o'clock. Threatening and disagreeable as the out door weather was, the attendance completely filled the house, and the ceremony, though wholly simple, was sad and oppressive. Rev. G. H. Hobart of the First Baptist Church officiated.

Mr. Fredericks was quite well known in Oakland, having resided here for the last twenty years. During the entire time he had been in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, chiefly as a conductor, and his exceedingly good fellowship gained for him a circle of friends in that fraternity. He was a native of Chatham, Ont., and but 44 years of age, hardly more than in the prime of life. His occupation caused him more or less exposure, and want of proper care finally gave the dread consumption a fatal foothold.

He clung to life, however, with wonderful tenacity, and it was two years and a half from the time he ceased labor till his death. His life was perfectly simple. Averse to ostentatious display of whatever kind, it was his special request upon the approach of death that all post mortem observances might be quite as simple. Surviving him are his wife and two young sons. The remains were interred in Mountain View Cemetery, and the pall-bearers that attended them thither were William Slater, James Simonton, Isaac L. Jordan, George W. Snook, William Dynes and Mr. Bell.

AT MOUNT CALVARY.

The Burial of the Body of Mrs. Elizabeth Kennedy.

The funeral services over the body of Mrs. Elizabeth Kennedy, who died Sunday last at the residence of her son-in-law, James Moffitt, at the corner of Twenty-second and Webster streets, took place today at the Church of St. Frances de Sales on Grove street, where a requiem high mass was held. The coffin was borne by the grandsons of the deceased, Herbert Moffitt, James Moffitt, Henry Lynch, James Lynch, Thomas Kennedy, Eugene Kennedy, Charles Cushing, John Burk. The body was buried in Mount Calvary Cemetery, San Francisco.

A CRUMPLED HEAP

Is All That Remains Today of Mrs. Woodworth's Tent.

A Breakdown With No Serious Mishaps—Immense Attendance — Future Arrangements.

"It's a warning to sinners."

That was the opinion of an old lady who stood last night and watched the wreck of the Woodworth tent, from which she had just escaped. Whether it was a warning to sinners to keep away from a rotten tent in a storm, or an "act of God," designed to terrify the wicked, she was not at pains to explain. Meanwhile the soaked and ragged canvas slapped and whipped in the furious wind and rain. It was not a good night for a fire. The stoves were carried out and left to sizzle and have it out with the elements. The electric lights were put out by the breaking of the wires. The poles were cut down and today the tent is a crumpled heap forlorn.

Nobody was hurt. Mrs. Woodworth and the people with her on the platform acted with admirable self-control, and quieted the people when the car was first split. Notwithstanding the tremendous storm which was in progress there must have been 100) in the tent. They all got out, not quietly exactly, but without any broken bones.

The attendance at these meetings twice every day during the pouring rains of the past week is a phenomenon of remarkable interest. No matter how severe the storm, there are never less than 1000 people at the meetings. Since the tent was removed to Market street the meetings have been orderly, and, although not exactly quiet in the ordinary sense of religious meetings, there has been nothing to afford the slightest ground for criticism. There is no doubt that Mrs. Woodworth is a revivalist of remarkable power, and the unfortunate impression created concerning the earlier meetings was due to the presence of a gang of hoodlums who went there hunting a fight.

Mrs. Woodworth supplies an unexpected answer to the question "Why don't the masses come to church?" They do come where they are wanted.

The new tent to accommodate 5000 people is expected to arrive on Friday, and in the meantime it is probable that the meetings will be suspended as the old tent is badly wrecked, and the season is not favorable for repairs. The Christmas entertainment for poor children which was to have been given in the tent will be held elsewhere.

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.

A Husband Returns After His People Heard He Was Dead.

A case of mistaken identity involving elements of dramatic interest sufficient to make the fortune of a sensational novel has just occurred in Switzerland, says the Pall Mall Gazette. A young couple named Favre, belonging to the working class, had lived happily together for some years at Neuchatel, when the husband, a working mason, began to give way to habits of drinking. Efforts were made to reclaim him, and he became an abstainer for a time. Some months ago, however, he broke out again and left his home. His wife had heard nothing of him for three months, when one night she was awakened by a voice calling her repeatedly from the street outside, and which she felt sure was that of her husband. She rose, dressed and went into the street, but found no one. A few days afterward she read an account in the newspapers of a man who had committed suicide on the railway at a small village near Bale. From the description of him she suspected it might be her missing husband, and became full of the idea that the voice she had heard was a communication from him at the moment of death. She was corroborated in her belief by learning, as the result of inquiries, that he had made application for work at a neighboring quarry, but, being in drink at the time had been roughly refused by the foreman. The body had now for some time been interred, but in order to put an end to her suspense the poor woman, having got together a little money, started off with the determination to have the body disinterred. She reached the village, and after some delay secured permission to open the grave. With two or three men as assistants she set to work. When the coffin was opened the effluvium was so terrible that her companions ran and left her alone with her dead. For twenty minutes, unaided, she pursued the ghostly task. The body had been decapitated by the train, and the head, horribly mutilated, was wrapped by itself in a cloth. She uncovered it, and recognized it by the teeth. One of the stockings also she knew again for having mended it with a particular kind of worsted. Her worst fears thus confirmed, she returned home in the depths of sorrow. The aged mother of the man was informed of the identification, and mourning was being prepared for the whole family, when the crowning act of the drama was furnished by a letter which had just been received from Favre himself, announcing that he is at Winterthur alive and well. The wife had, after all, identified the wrong man. Who it is that actually lies in that lonely grave no one knows. What would not Wilkie Collins have made out of that midnight voice, the graveyard vigil, and the extraordinary denouement.

Christmas Display.

The Oakland merchants have taken considerable trouble to decorate their stores and show windows for the holiday season, and it is astonishing how handsome they look. On every side is to be seen stocks of goods of all kinds and styles imaginable put on display in the most attractive manner, to tempt those who contemplate making some one happy by giving them a Christmas present.

It takes considerable skill and taste to decorate a window for the holiday season, and in some of the larger cities of the Eastern States men are especially employed in this kind of work who command large salaries and who do nothing but trimming windows and decorating stores. We believe there are not many professional window trimmers in this State, but the work on some of them is certainly very good and shows good taste. This is especially so in the store and show windows of J. S. Gilmore & Co.'s, large dry goods establishment at the corner of Thirteenth and Washington streets, where there is an immense disply of Christmas goods arrayed and displayed in a most tempting manner, causing many of the admirers to wish for a longer purse, that they might indulge more extravagantly. This stock of Christmas goods seems to be illimitable, and purchasers of goods will find that a visit to this store will repay them for the trouble. Their store is illuminated by three large electric lights and several small incandescent electric lamps, and makes a brilliant spectacle in the evening.

Why Suffer from CATARRH? Be Cured by POND'S EXTRACT

As this man was.

"I have been a constant sufferer for years (from about Nov. 1st until the following June) from severe colds in my head and throat, in fact, the whole mucous tissue from the nose down to and including the bronchial tubes, were more or less affected. It was fast developing into CHRONIC CATARRH. I had tried most known remedies and was finally persuaded last March to use POND'S EXTRACT. I snuffed it up my nose and inhaled it; gargled my throat with it and swallowed it. It relieved me wonderfully and has effected almost a radical cure. I have used it for burns, bruises, and sprains, and believe it invaluable in such cases. I believe also that no family should be without it in the house, feeling as I do that it comprises a whole Pharmacopeia within itself."

SMILIE'S CLAIM.

Board of Education Will Pay the Contractor.

HE WILL NOT HAVE TO BRING A SUIT.

Miss Grace Campbell Resigns—Teachers Transferred—The East Oakland Night School.

There was a little surprise in store for Director Fine at the meeting of the Board of Education last night, which apparently he had no thought of until the trap was sprung and he found six votes good and true against him. At a recent meeting of the board Directors Fine and Morgan championed the cause against Contractor Smilie, who rebuilt the High school after it was burned the first time, and by their votes it was decided that the board would not allow his claim of $8233 45, balance due on the High school contract, and by this course the only way for the contractor to obtain his money was to bring a suit against the Board of Education, thereby incurring a great deal of expense and taking a chance of defeat in the courts. Apparently since the last meeting some of the Directors have changed their minds.

Director Everett called the matter up for reconsideration last night, and the motion prevailed. Messrs. Everett, Chartrand, Walcutt, Fish, Parker, and Clement voting aye, and Messrs. Fine, Sanborn, Morgan, and Marston voting no.

Director Everett then moved that the claim be paid, and this motion prevailed, the same gentlemen voting in the affirmative. Director Morgan declined to vote on the matter, stating that he desired to take further legal advice on the subject, and he was accordingly excused from voting.

Director Fish, before voting in the affirmative, stated that as he understands the matter the claim had been approved by the Board of Public Works; the City Attorney had rendered an opinion to the effect that the claim should be paid and that the members of the board could not be held personally responsible.

So Mr. Smilie can now draw down his cash without going to the courts.

Director Fish called up the matter of establishing a primary school at Lynn, and wanted to know what had become of the petition of the taxpayers.

Director Fine replied that he was one of the committee to investigate the matter, but the mud is so deep at Lynn he had been unable to visit the place.

The matter was finally referred to the committee with power to decide whether to hire a room and employ a teacher to conduct a school at Lynn.

Applications for positions as regular teachers were received as follows: Maud M. Pearce, W. J. Cornell, Seila A. Darrow, Mrs. I. Cammnell.

G. E. Darling's tuition was remitted. He is attending the High school.

Mrs. N. J. Ashton was granted a leave of absence for two months, commencing January 1, 1890.

Director Morgan, chairman of the Industrial Committee, reported that he had examined the work at the Lincoln school for the past six months, and found it much improved over the previous term. The work, he stated, is very creditable. He then read the following report from Principal Horton:

GENTLEMEN: During the term which has just closed, two classes (forty pupils) have received instruction in mechanical drawing and shop work. The advanced class, twenty in number, was composed of boys from the B Eighth, A Ninth and B Ninth grades, while the class of beginners was made up of volunteers from the A Eighth grade.

The latter class has received systematic instruction as in classroom, and the results have been more than satisfactory. The work accomplished during the past six weeks, and now on exhibition in the shop, although far from perfection, speaks for itself.

Frequent talks on woods, sources from which they are obtained, different uses, means of transportation, commercial value, etc., have benefitted each pupil without doubt.

The regular attendance, faithfulness, eagerness to work and work well, have convinced me that there is no mistake in this kind of education. One hour has been given to mechanical drawing each week, while work in shop has been continued one and one-half hours on Monday and Wednesday of each week. The one and one-half hour plan instead of the half-day custom has had its advantages. Less time is taken from classroom work, better attention secured, etc.

As the production of a useful article stimulates the boy far more than mere practice work I would suggest as far as practicable the making of seats, benches, etc., for school yards and plazas.

Miss Grace Campbell resigned her position as a teacher in the Durant school, stating that she had received an increase in salary in her present position at Livermore and thanking the board for their kindness in electing her.

Miss Sadie B. Treat was elected to fill the vacancy.

On motion of Director Everett, Miss McCoombs was transferred from the Tompkins school to the Clawson school and Mrs. Woods was transferred from the Clawson to the Tompkins school.

On motion of Secretary McClymonds, the matter of transferring the fifth grade class from the Grove to the Tompkins school was referred to the classification committee, to report to the Board.

Mr. Burchael, who resides outside the city, asked permission to have his child attend the Grant school free of tuition. The matter was referred to a committee.

T. J. Fish called attention to the fact that a policy of insurance on one of the schools is about to expire. On motion of Director Everett it was resolved that all insurance policies expiring before the next meeting of the board, be renewed in the companies in which the risks are placed at present.

The committee appointed to investigate the matter of establishing a night school in East Oakland reported favorably on the project and suggested that a room be fitted up in the Franklin school for that purpose. Forty-one young men had signified their intention of attending the school.

Secretary McClymonds remarked that it would be impossible for one teacher to teach such a large class in all the branches of study. Again, if a night school were started in East Oakland it will weaken the central night school, and that school would have to do away with one teacher. He therefore opposed the adoption of the report.

Director Fine stated that he did not agree with Mr. McClymonds that the establishing of a school in East Oakland would weaken the central school. He had been informed that few boys from East Oakland attended the present school. He knew the boys who petitioned to be worthy, and they are entitled to consideration.

The report of the committee to establish a night school in East Oakland was not adopted, and a notice of reconsideration was given.

Superintendent McClymonds presented the following report: At the Grove street school the total enrollment for the past year was 243; attendance at the close of the present term, 174. Clawson school—Enrollment, 705; attendance at close, 227; Night school—Enrollment, 188; at close, 62. Lincoln school—Enrollment, 800; at close, 691. Franklin school—Enrollment, 731; at close, 578; left during the term, 159; returned, 58. Lafayette school—Enrollment, 870; at close, 622. Cole school—Total enrollment, 1016; at close, 811. Durant school—Enrollment, 1132; attendance at close, 827. Tompkins school—Enrollment, 477; attendance at close, 365. Prescott school—Total enrollment, 1020; at close, 869; left school, 322; returned, 107. High school—Number of scholars enrolled at beginning of year, 523; attendance at close, 431; left school, 105; returned, 17; per centage of attendance, 96.4

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid: Niagara Fire Insurance Company, $43 20; W. B. Hardy, $125 28; James E. Logan, $8; Home Mutual Insurance Company, $182; J. L. Howard, $63 25; E. Mr. Hering's Views.

Rudolph Hering, the sanitary engineer, was before the Los Angeles City Council the other day to explain some matters in connection with the proposed sewerage system of that city, and while the topographical conditions in Los Angeles are very different from ours, yet he said some things of a general nature which will apply to both cities. For instance he is thus reported in the Los Angeles Times.

He believes that brick sewers are better than small pipe sewers. The water should be concentrated as soon as possible, and it is cheaper to build large sewers than small ones. It is cheaper to build one four-foot sewer than two two-foot sewers. The city should build as large a sewer as possible. It has been said that pipe sewers are better than brick sewers. The death rate is lower in cities where large brick sewers are used, but he is in favor of mixed sewers. The large ones should be of brick and the small ones of pipe. Up to a certain size pipe sewers are cheaper, but after that concrete or brick sewers are cheaper. If anything the concrete sewer is more desirable, for the reason that it is smoother, and the matter passes through with much more ease.

The propositions here laid down would seem to cover the case of an intercepting sewer along the water front. Whether such a sewer is needed is another matter on which Mr. Hering will no doubt give us an opinion, taking into consideration the increased force of the current in the estuary which will be caused by the opening of the tidal canal. If it is decided that the flow of the tides will be sufficient to clean the mud flats of foul matter then the pipe sewers will be amply sufficient, for there will be no need on the southern watershed of the city to use them as storm drains. Mr. Hering told the Los Angeles Council that he did not favor the combination of storm drains and sewers wherever it could be avoided. His reason is that the separate system is much cheaper. The storm water runs off in the gutters of Oakland, south of Twelfth street, into the estuary without serious inconvenience to the residents. The same thing is true of the greater part of the northern watershed, and the main lake sewer is large enough to carry the water to the bay. On this showing it will be seen that a great deal depends on the decision to be arrived at concerning the capacity of the estuary and the improved tidal flow to carry off the sewage.

The Shasta Park Plan.

Charles Howard Shinn writes in Garden and Forest concerning the proposal to make a great national part or reservation at the Mount Shasta region, which has been mentioned more than once in these columns:

Californians have had dreams of a great Mount Shasta Park, some fifty or sixty miles square, including the head waters of the Sacramento, McCloud, Trinity, Shasta and other great rivers. But it was merely a subject for table discussion, and was never taken up and made a living issue on which men had to take sides. And now, if not already too late, it soon will be. The Southern Pacific Railroad Company, whose Oregon line passes through these forests, has the greatest individual interest in their preservation. There is no forest district in California more interesting to the fisherman, the hunter, the botanist, and the lover of nature; no district of more importance to the city dwellers; no region more closely connected with the agricultural prosperity of the great central valleys; but no one in California is "making a fight" for the Shasta Park. Senator Stanford is reported as saying, recently, that he had not known how fine the pines of Mount Shasta were, and that he had thought of buying 1200 acres, and keeping axe and fire out of it; but the sawmills were already in the tract he wanted, and nothing yet has been done in the matter.

However desirable the plan we fear there is not the slightest hope of anything of the sort being done until every marketable stick of timber in the whole region is cut out. It might be possible then to acquire the mountain sides and preserve the young growth from sheep and fires. When the timber thieves and butchers have got out all the trees of any size there will be little inducement to pay taxes on the land and most of it will be abandoned as happened in the Adirondacks to a very great extent some twenty-five or thirty years ago. Not until then will it be possible to do anything worth while in the way of making a reservation. It is useless to labor to persuade the people that the destruction of the forests will be of serious damage to the lands in the valleys, subject to floods in winter and droughts in summer. In conversation with Mr. Shinn, a lumberman put the case pithily:

The people don't care. Every settler within ten miles of my mill wants to sell me trees at $1 apiece. The State doesn't care, or it would have been saved, at least the school sections. The country don't care, or we should hear from it. There is money in the lumber business, and every tree has got to go. Sorry for the feelings of the fellows who didn't know enough to get timber land when it was cheap.

All right. Let the trees go, if they must, but save the young growth afterwards. Keep out the sheepmen and keep down the fires. There is undoubtedly a great deal of sentimental nonsense talked about the forests. There is no reason why a young forest should not be quite as effective as an old one in the retention of moisture and its gradual distribution. In twenty-five or thirty years it will be fit to cut again.

Bank Note Circulation.

The usual nonsense is being talked about the shrinkage of the circulating medium, which will occur when the national banks must withdraw their notes, because there are no more United States bonds to be deposited as security for these issues. Of course the argument assumes that there is no possible substitute for the national bank notes, although, as a matter of fact, it is only necessary for the Government to print greenbacks equivalent to the bank circulation in order to supply the want. If more security is desired, the notes can be issued in the shape of silver certificates against the silver dollars deposited in the National Treasury. There is no particular need of national banks so far as anyone can see. They have served their purpose, and have been well paid for it by allowing them to earn interest twice over on the same money—that is, on their note circulation, and on the bonds deposited as security for the same. They have established themselves in a profitable business, which will be affected not materially by the loss of privilege of issuing notes.

EDITOR MARSHALL of the Burbank Times casts his eagle eye over the soppy fields and remarks:

Some of our farmers who seed as they plow are amazed to see the grain up in one part of the field before they have finished plowing the other.

Alas that a San Leandro boy should have contracted the unhappy habit of prevarication characteristic of his present surroundings. Come back to San Leandro and repent.

THE editor of the Woodland Mail is fighting a flood and two libel suits. He is one of the unterrified.

The Heathen of Temescal.

Pacific Churchman.

Rev. F. D. Miller of Temescal said he had traveled for many years up and down the Pacific coast, and knew of no place more in need of missionary work than Temescal. There are now in that place fifteen liquor saloons, to offset their evil influences only two crosses, the Roman Catholic Church and that of Grace Mission. The Presbyterians and Methodists are making brave efforts to get a foothold there. The mission, while not the most flourishing in the world, is yet struggling upward. He was not making an appeal for the little heathen of the Congo, but for the heathen of Temescal, who were quite as much in need of missionary work and assistance. The result of Mr. Miller's appeal was quite a generous contribution.

Grunauer's Sensational Pig.

Brentwood Correspondence Martinez Item.

The question as to what became of the pig that so mysteriously disappeared from Grunauer's pen is the sensation of Railroad avenue. The pig was little, but old enough to make up what it lacked in size; it had a long nose, a rat tail and was "big around." It had been pampered and fed unsparingly but had persistently refused to grow. It had red hair, a measly hide and thin legs that was out of all proportion to its distended body, and lo! it disappeared; but whether it exploded and blew itself into fragments, or some kind hearted citizen removed it out of pure commiseration is the unanswered query some would like to know.

The Slippy, Sloppy, Slappy Girl.

Oroville Mercury.

The visiting schoolmarms in Chico are referred to as the "gossamer backed duckies." The local editor of the Enterprise sails about the flock like a gander lost in a snowstorm.

He Tackled the Bear.

Haywards Journal.

Ed Strobridge tackled the Natives' bear Tuesday evening, and got through with all his hide, though the old fellow gave him a lively chase at the "round up."

Seasonable Legal Lore.

Albany Times.

It has been decided in a New York court that an umbrella is property. But whose property? That is the question.

The "Wasp" in New Hands.

Samuel W. Backus, formerly Postmaster of San Francisco, but now at the head of the Backus Printing and Publishing Company, announces that in January next he will assume the management and publication of the Wasp, the oldest cartoon paper in the United States. It is Mr. Backus's intention to add many new features to this publication, both of a literary and an artistic nature. Special correspondents will be secured in all the larger cities in California and the East, and as the publisher announces, "It will oppose political bossism and expose the corruption at present existing in political parties in San Francisco." Politically the paper will be Republican and under the new regime the paper will probably meet with greater success than ever before.

Fulfilling Contracts.

Twenty-two contracts for grading, curbing, and macadamizing roadways, awarded by the City Council, are now fulfilling by the contractors. The Oakland Paving Company has twelve contracts on hand, the Alameda Macadamizing Company has nine, and Bailey & Lockwood have one. Five contracts for sewers, one for constructing catch basins, one for grading and curbing, one for grading, and one for laying bituminous rock are yet unfulfilled.

Rheumatism

Is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips, and wrists. Thousands of people have found Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

COUGHLAN REWARDED.

The Star Twirler Presented With a Handsome Present.

A number of the many friends of Roscoe Coughlan, the star twirler of the Oakland baseball nine, surprised that gentleman last evening by presenting him with a gold watch and chain as a reward for the work done during the past season and especially for his work in winning the final and decisive game on November 24th. E. F. Thayer made the presentation speech and in a few well selected remarks congratulated the twirler on his success. He remarked that his work had demonstrated the fact that he is not a quitter.

Mr. Coughlan replied that he would like to remain in Oakland but should he be compelled to go elsewhere he would always think fondly of his friends in this city.

This inscription decorates the inner case of the watch: "Presented to William E. Coughlan by His Friends, December, 1889."

The following gentlemen were present at the presentation: E. F. Thayer, W. S. O'Brien, Forest Seabury, Fred Davis, Robert N. Risdon, William Bullington, A. W. Havens, George Teller, R. E. Irwin, Henry Bernstein, John Marcovich, Eugene Van Court and Archie Levy.

A COUNTY'S CLAIM.

Trying to Recover Money From a Contractor.

Judge Ellsworth is engaged today in trying the case of Humboldt County against James Simpson to recover $556. The defendant was a contractor and built the new courthouse in Eureka. When the work was completed Simpson presented his claim to the Board of Supervisors, and it was allowed in full. When the courthouse was occupied it was found that some of the work was defective. The floors leaked when water was poured upon them, and other defects were discovered. The Board of Supervisors then had to have the work repaired at an expense of $656, and they now want to recover this amount from the original contractor. The case could not be tried in Humboldt county, so a change of venue was had to this county.

—A. D. Williams of Moraga was in town yesterday. He says that the roads between here and there are almost impassable, and that they are much worse on the Alameda county side than on the Contra Costa.

—Gardiner Greene Hubbard and his daughter, Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell, wife of Professor Bell of Washington, D. C., are making a short visit to the Pacific coast, and last Tuesday Mrs. Bell and her uncle, Samuel Hubbard of Oakland, lunched with Mrs. Wilkinson at the principal's house at the Institute for the Deaf, Dumb, and the Blind.

A GURNEY RUNAWAY.

The Straps That Hold the Doors to be Removed.

Howard Wilmouth, driver of a Gurney cab, was driving his cab to fill an order last night about 9 o'clock. Just before reaching the corner of Lake and Jackson streets the horses ran into some telegraph wire that had fallen to the ground. When the horses stepped on the wire it flopped up over the horses' heads and struck the driver in the face and knocked his hat off and unbalanced him, so that when the horses turned the corner the sudden turn threw him to the ground, but the wheels did not run over him. At about the time the driver was thrown to the ground the team started to run. The cab was soon upset, and the team broke loose and ran to Temescal before it was stopped.

Mr. Wilmouth was taken into the residence of R. G. Brown, where he was kindly cared for. He is but slightly hurt, and says that the only effects he feels today is soreness. Mr. Jackson, manager of the Gurney Cab Company, says that the leather straps used on these cabs to hold the doors fast are the same as used on all the Gurneys throughout the United States, but he has a man at work on a spring to hold the door shut, and expects to have them on all the cabs next week and to remove the straps.

THEY STILL PURSUE HER.

Mrs. Greene-Boyer Is Very Hard to Find by the Sheriff.

About two months ago Mary Donovan secured a judgment against her mother, Mrs. Josephine Boyer, for the recovery of certain personal property valued at $1000. An execution was given to the Sheriff, and for six weeks Deputy Sheriff Alden has been trying to serve the lady with the paper. He has called at her house morning, noon and night, but has always met with the same remark: "Mrs. Boyer is not at home." Mr. Alden has visited the Boyer home twenty-five times in six weeks, and yet he has not met the lady. They know him at the house, and consequently are prepared for him when he puts in an appearance. Alden made his usual call at noon today and as before was informed, "Mrs. Boyer is not at home."

Mrs. Boyer is the widow of the late Dr. Thomas Green. Her young husband, who might be her son should age only be considered, now occupies an elevated position on an express wagon. He is a fair driver, and pulls the strings with skill.

Demands His Children.

John Nobther called at the county jail this afternoon and demanded his two little children. His demand was refused and the children were sent to the West Oakland Home.

Hoarse Plaints of Patrons of the Piedmont Road.

BRONCHITIS AND ASPHYXIATION.

The Councilmen Take Testimony—Liquor Licenses—An Assistant to Mr. Hering.

The Piedmont road was a hard road to travel last evening and the Jericho road was a broad, bituminized boulevard compared with the cable up over the hills. No sooner was the protest against the manner of running the road heard than the project of that company for gravity curves was promptly sat upon.

The City Council, which was in session last evening, sustained the Mayor's veto of the ordinance fixing the grade of the Twelfth street dam and then passed another that corrects the errors objected to by the Mayor.

Late in the evening it was passed to print and it will be adopted before the rain has ceased and it is in a condition to begin work upon.

A recess was taken and the Council resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, and Mr. Collins was put in the chair, and the Council launched itself into the consideration of the protest against the manner of operating the Oakland and Piedmont street road.

The protests of the residents along the line of the road was read and then the following communication from the Piedmont Cable Company was read:

To the Honorable Council of the City of Oakland: The Piedmont Cable Company respectfully represents to your honorable body that it has succeeded to the property and franchises of the Broadway, Berkeley and Piedmont Railroad Company, against which latter corporation a complaint has been filed and a special hearing granted to the complainants.

Without entering into a discussion before your honorable body of the merits of a complaint against our predecessors, this company desires to state that as fast as men, money, mechanical skill and the weather will permit, it is pushing the construction of the cable road to Piedmont, and directly that is finished arrangements are made to build one over the present horse line to Mountain View cemetery.

In the speedy completion of these two lines lies the solution of all the horse car troubles of these complaining travelers, and we submit that this is no time for them to appear before your honorable body to discuss personal grievances so soon to be remedied. At this point, we call your attention to the fact that the list of complainants is swelled by the names of illiterate foreign laborers who are not abiding citizens and who have no interest in such matters.

We claim that such colonized testimony should have no weight with you, especially as some of the complainants, both native and foreign, have since confessed that they neither read the document themselves nor had it read to them.

In carrying out this cable enterprise the company has received warm encouragement and substantial aid from a majority of the citizens at or near Piedmont, who appreciate the benefits that will accrue to their homes and property, and they cannot be found among these complainants. But as is usual in such cases, there remains a small minority, conspicuous only as obstructionists, with motives more or less questionable.

In conclusion, we feel confident that your honorable body will deal with this subject in a spirit of fairness, and that you will give intelligent recognition to what is being done by this company to improve the character of public transportation in the city of Oakland and its suburbs. Respectfully, PIEDMONT CABLE COMPANY.
WILSON B. MORSE, Secretary.

James Gamble was the first speaker for the protest, and he said:

"This has been an old complaint, and has been going on for years, and I don't think that anyone has suffered more than I and my family. I addressed a letter to the president of the Piedmont Cable Company some time ago, but I never received an answer. I then put that petition in circulation, which I had drawn up over a year ago, and which I intended to put in circulation at the time. I made no special effort to obtain signatures. If I had I could have obtained the signatures of every man along the line save those who are personally interested in the road. One week ago on Sunday night I went over to San Francisco and rode from my house in an open car. I asked the driver why they did not have a closed car, and he told me that the sun was shining. When I came home I come on the last car, and hoped to find a closed car, but no, there was the old open car. I became thoroughly chilled and was sick for two days. On this car were several ladies who were chilled, and one little girl was so cold that the driver wrapped the girl in his coat. Our servant went to Oakland and was sick for a week afterwards."

"I heartily second everything that Mr. Gamble has said," announced W. C. Little. "When this franchise was granted it was intended that the people, who gave the franchise, should have both safety and comfort, but they have neither. The roadbed is bad, the rails are sprung and spoilt, and the ties are rotten. It is an hourly occurrence to have the cars run off the track, and everyone who rides in these open air pneumonia cars has a cold. I am a strong active man, and yet I have come down in one of those open cars when the thermometer stood at 45 degrees, and have been chilled. I asked one driver what the matter was, and he replied that he did not have time to switch out a closed car. That is a sample of the parsimonious, niggardly system on which this road is run, and it shows how the owners are waiting for the mighty dollar. On the Broadway hill, where the street is being graded, the track is frequently obstructed, but the company never puts on a force of men to keep it clear. They simply put a shovel on the car and let the driver clear it off. They have no cash boxes, but the driver, covered with mud and dripping wet, is sent through the cars to wipe the mud off on the passengers while he collects the fare. I know that the cars have been nine minutes behind time, and frequently I have seen the president of the road get out and grease the track. This is simply a specimen of niggardly policy on which the road is run. I admit that they have three good cars, but they are so dirty that it is impossible to ride in them. The other closed cars are mere boxes and are called the asphyxia cars, because you are either suffocated or frozen to death. The drivers are an excellent set of men, but the management of the road is the worst in the world."

Ed Harper, a clerk at the cemetery, said he does not want to stand all these discomforts while the cable road is building.

William Collins of Mountain View Cemetery added his testimony to the effect that his daughter had taken a ride on one of these open cars and had been sick for five weeks after. The stonecutters had complained of the service, and if they complained what must delicate ladies do? He considered the road as the best property in the city next to the Southern Pacific Company's property.

William O'Connor, the campaign orator, gave a very enthusiastic speech, in which he complained of the road in no measured terms, and remarked that the service is worse than a mountain stage line and is not fit for a civilized town like Oakland.

A. W. Bowman appeared for the cable company. "The Piedmont Cable Company," said he, "has covered the ground in its communication, and I would only say that the cable company is endeavoring to substitute a cable for the street road. As soon as the Piedmont cable is completed we shall run a cable to the cemetery, and arrangements are all completed."

President Camron took up the cudgel in favor of the protest. "That road is making business for itself by killing people, so that there will be more relatives to go out to the cemetery to visit their graves. They are not running their cars properly, and it is in the power of the Council to declare their franchise forfeited. If the Council takes it into their head to do this the company may have some trouble in placing its bonds. They said that a lot of ignorant foreigners had made this complaint. James Gamble, Marshal Pierce, Frank Pierce and Colonel Little are a few of these complainants. They have some rights in this community. That road has killed the territory through which it has been run, for the cars never have until recently, run oftener than every half an hour. I once asked the president of the road how often he was going to run his cable cars, and he replied that it was a mere matter of detail. I wish that we had compelled five minute trips, as we did in the case of the electric road."

At this point Mr. Howe, president of the car company, tried to ask what would happen if two trips should be made every five minutes.

"It won't be done," said Mr. Camron. "This company don't care an iota for the people. And there is another road on Telegraph avenue where the drivers come into the cars with mud bespattered garments to collect fares. The owners of the Broadway road say that they cannot afford to give better service. They went to a certain capitalist and showed him that it paid interest on $620,000. They have ruined Broadway, the best street in this city by running half hour trips, and it was not until recently that they have run fifteen minute trips, and the property on Broadway would have been selling at $300 a front foot. I wish that we had made them, in their franchise, run five minute trips, as we did in the case of the Twelfth street road."

"I am sorry to see our president in such a passion," began Mr. Hackett.

"I was not in a passion," announced Mr. Camron. "I was simply talking earnestly."

Mr. McAvoy complained about the horses standing on the crosswalk at Seventh and Washington streets.

The matter was referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Evans, Camron and Hackett to report.

Gravity Curves.

The Council reconvened, and the report of the Board of Public Works, adopted just before the Council came to order, was read, containing the following recommendation:

"The Board of Public Works, acting in an advisory capacity with the Council, have investigated and examined a similar system of curves as permitted in San Francisco, believe, and it is their opinion, that said curves, as they are proposed, may be permitted in Oakland with the sanction of the City Council, without detriment to the public interest. Provided, however, that the streets are put in good condition and made flush with the tracks and curbs at the various corners and that catch basins be constructed where the flow of water is obstructed, and by pipes under construction over the gutters for carrying off the water, as per plan of the City Engineer, and under his supervision, and to the satisfaction of the Board of Public Works. Furthermore, that said Piedmont Cable Company shall, when they find it becomes necessary to elevate or depress their tracks as above stated, pave said street from curb to curb in the same manner and with the same material as may be adopted by property owners on said streets, and that said tracks when completed shall not in any manner afford any inconvenience to the public."

There was more talk, and a resolution was introduced in accordance with the above report, and then it was seen that the Piedmont road was indeed a hard road to travel, for it was declared out of order, as an ordinance cannot be changed by resolution.

The ordinance referred to is the one granting the franchise. It requires that the tracks shall be laid on the official grade.

Liquor Licenses.

Permits to obtain licenses to sell liquor were granted to M. Miloslovich & Co., M. Sullivan and Howard Shaw.

Shaw had complied with the ordinance, so said Mr. Towle, and his license was passed unanimously.

The bond of Gus and Frank Donant, with Thomas Landregan and Charles Baab as sureties, was approved.

Then came an explosion. A resolution was introduced giving Kucks & Fugel a license to sell liquor at the northeast corner of Twelfth and Webster streets, in the Dietz Opera House building.

Mr. Macdonald asked if this saloon is in accordance with the ordinance, and Mr. Fugel said that all the business will be conducted in one large room.

Then Mr. Hackett rose, and he once more waded into the Dietz corner.

It was the same old speech, only this time he said that Mr. Fugel is as good a man as could be placed in charge. He thought it would be a good thing if the place would remain vacant for a while, and he spoke about the protests he could get. Then he declared that the city is governed by the laws of America and not of Germany, and he got in a little dab at President Camron, announcing that the law is being infringed and it ought not to be allowed, even if the President did vote for it, referring to the support by Mr. Camron of Fugel's application.

Mr. Fugel promised to comply with the law and couldn't see where the arrangement of his place would violate it.

Mr. Wakefield wanted the resolution referred back to the committee.

"Mr. Wakefield, will you vote for a place that will allow a woman to drink beer there?" asked Mr. Hackett.

Then everybody who wanted Mr. Wakefield's vote flew to his assistance and President Camron declared the question out of order.

Then Mr. Collins grew communicative. "I don't know much about these things unless I get on a bender with the boys and do the town. I did that in New York about twenty-two years ago and saw the elephant, went down to Coney Island, and among other things I visited a beer hall, and it had but one entrance, and if one entrance is enough for them there it is enough for them here."

"I should like to have seen you going the rounds," said Mr. Kirk.

Then Mr. Collins grew scriptural. "You should do unto others as you would be done by, and we have to treat all squarely and alike."

"It is the same old door," said Mr. Hackett. "Let men and women go in the front door if they want a glass of beer. That application never came before the Committee on Ordinance and Judiciary either."

"I know that the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee have approved licenses for saloons in grocery stores," declared Mr. Evans.

"Who?" demanded Captain Hackett.

"The gentlemen from the Fifth, the First, and the Second wards all did it, and I know that the gentleman from the First knew what he was doing."

"Mr. Evans is away off," announced Mr. Hackett very decidedly. "He is always saying things as facts that are not facts, and he knows they ain't. I never signed an application for a place of that kind if I knew anything about it. Mr. Evans says what is not a fact, and what he knows not to be a fact."

"Don't get personal," warned President Camron.

"I can't help it," replied Mr. Hackett, "when he says what he does about my approving applications for licenses for saloons and groceries combined. Now, about this application before us. This is the same old ladies' entrance business. You have got to draw the line at this woman business or you will spoil everything."

Then the whole matter was referred to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee.

Kucks & Fugel desire to open at the corner of Twelfth and Webster streets a place similar to the Louvre in San Francisco.

The license application of F. Harding brought down William Rutherford, superintendent of the cotton mills, who said that G. F. Crist had deeded his property among his family in order to get signatures to the petition.

There were more speeches, and the application was denied, Mr. Kirk being excused as he did not wish to vote on the subject for fear it would be said that he was trying to pay off an old score against Harding.

The Sewer System.

A resolution authorizing the appointment of two more civil engineers to assist Rudolph Hering, who is engaged to prepare a system of sewers for the city, brought forth a sarcastic "Some more?" from Mr. Evans.

Mr. Macdonald amended it so as to read one other engineer and the City Engineer.

Then Mr. Evans took the floor. He accused the Council of extravagance, and said that five former commissions had all reported exactly the same idea, and a new commission is a useless expense. He also said that Mr. Boardman, whom he was sure the committee would appoint, was, and had announced himself as opposed to the Third street sewer.

Mr. Collins thought the City Engineer had enough to do now.

Then Mr. Evans charged that this is an infamous plan to oust the City Engineer.

Mr. Collins was sorry that Mr. Evans is always looking for dark things.

"And you are always letting them out," retorted Mr. Evans.

Then the Council settled down to a discussion that was long and wearisome. Mr. Evans charged that certain persons were trying to force a Mr. Compton upon the city as City Engineer, and that W. D. English had been engineering the job. Mr. Evans favored the appointment of Major Benyaurd, if any one.

"As a man from the Second ward I don't care anything about this. I have simply been trying to give you who need it a sewer. I don't care whether you get it or not, for we don't need one where we are," said Mr. Camron.

"You do. You need the main lake sewer extended," said Mr. Evans.

"We don't need anything of the kind," retorted Mr. Camron, and then he announced that he would have nothing more to do with the appointment of engineers.

Mr. Macdonald's amendment was adopted, Messrs Evans, Hackett and Collins voting no. Some bills were passed and the Council adjourned for a week.

THE PIEDMONT LINE.

Some Queer Practices in Vogue on That Railroad.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: One of the officials of the Piedmont street railroad tells one of your local contemporaries that the petition to the City Council was chiefly signed by "granite cutters" and such people who had no permanent interest in the district. As a matter of fact these men are permanently employed in the cemetery, and the fact that they do not happen to own land in the neighborhood is no reason why they should be spoken of contemptuously. The same official says the people prefer the open cars. Perhaps in summer, but how in this rainy weather, when they run open cars at night, with a dim coal oil lamp hung by a bale rope to the roof. It always has been a mystery to most of the people out here how one of the first drivers on the road got killed, as he was alone on the car. But this official claims to know all about the unfortunate occurrence. All the old residents out here knew him well. He was a sober, industrious American. I believe the widow brought suit against the company, but it got mysteriously hushed up. This practice of pulling the horses' tails is yet in vogue to some extent. The drivers pull the bronchos' tails to get them started. The horse naturally imagines that the driver wants him to go in the opposite direction, and after a little shouldering from the passengers, he oftentimes makes up his mind, starts suddenly, and leaves behind him his dupes who forced the car on his heels.

PIEDMONT CARS BEHIND TIME.

Mr. Polk's Sad Experiences in Trying to Catch the Trains.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: As a pensioner on the good will, sweet intentions and bad management of the Broadway and Piedmont Street Car Company, I wish to get in a word for the people, as I was unable to attend the meeting at the Council Chamber last evening, if my most recent experiences will serve as an example of the usual luck attending patrons of the road who depend upon its kindly offices to reach certain trains.

I was very much embarrassed, and a number of guests were put to considerable inconvenience from the fact that we expected to "catch" the last narrow gauge train from Oakland for San Francisco, but were prevented from doing so by reason of the Broadway car being ten minutes late. Of course there were other ways of getting to that train, or we were at liberty to have tried for an earlier one, and for very folly 'twas only right I should pay hotel bills and say nothing, all of which would be perfectly right if this were an exceptional case. On the contrary, it is, I am sure, the daily experiences of numerous patrons of the road to arrive at Fourteenth street just in time to see the train pulling out. It is certainly not the duty of this road to make connections with the trains, but when their scheduled time makes it a possibility, and their actual running time makes it an impossibility, it is exasperating to say the least, and when I have guests from San Francisco, and am forced to put them in an Oakland hotel over night it is very sad.

Must Pay Alimony.

Judge Ellsworth has made an order requiring John Henry Church Sr. to pay his wife $75 for counsel fees, $40 for costs, and $40 alimony pending the trial of the divorce case which she has instituted.

The Stockyards.

Township Constable Page was here yesterday and took a hand at dressing some sheep. He has not forgotten his old trade and can work as skillfully now as he could before he began working for the people.

Emeryville.

J. A. Upton's little 10 year old son broke his arm on Sunday last while playing with some little boys near the intersection of Park and San Pablo avenue. He was playing leap frog and slipped, falling on his arm breaking it in two places. A physician from Oakland was called and the fractures were reduced.

Durant Lodge, No. 268, of Masons will confer the second degree next Friday evening.

Most all of the business establishments of this town will be closed on Christmas day.

No telephone connections could be made today, as several wires were blown down last evening.

The case of the People vs. Andy Moore came up for argument on demurrer this afternoon before Judge Little.

One of the electric light wires was blown down on Dwight way last evening, but was put up again immediately, so that the town was not left in darkness for any length of time.

The Knights of Pythias will confer the amplified third degree this evening on several candidates. The branch of the order in this town is about six months old and now has about forty members.

The case of the people against Julius Meyer, for selling liquor within one mile of the University, has not yet been set for trial, as the defendant is ill, and not able to be out of his room. He will plead not guilty to the charge.

Constable Fonzo is looking for one Max Kern, formerly barkeeper for Julius Meyer. The man is wanted as a witness in one of the liquor suits, but will probably not be found, as he has left for parts unknown to the authorities.

Captain Romer Fowler started out yesterday morning with seven large boxes and innumerable packages filled with presents for the children at the Temescal Orphan Asylum and the West Oakland Home. The presents were contributed by the teachers and pupils at the Kellogg school and consisted of toys, garments, etc.

Golden Gate.

A dress ball will be held in Klinkner Hall this evening.

Druggist Jensen is laid up with a bad cold and is unable to attend to his business.

The Knights of Pythias have postponed their regular meeting until next Friday evening, at which time several candidates will receive degrees.

Piedmont Public School.

The closing exercises of the Piedmont school took place on Friday last. Notwithstanding the inclement weather without, interesting class recitations, declamations, and joyous Christmas songs made the day a sunny time indoors. The crowning joy of the pupils was a lunch party. Happier faces, more cheerful chatter, nor fuller justice done to the good things set before them could not be found anywhere. Christmas gifts for each pupil, and many from pupils to teachers, made the occasion an additional happy one.

LAMEDA COUNTY HAPPENINGS.

What the People of Adjoining Towns and Villages are Doing and Saying—Notes.

East Oakland.

Edward Lynch of Fresno is spending he Christmas holidays with friends ere.

A Christmas ship will be had at the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church this vening.

Henry Fine has sufficiently recovered rom his recent illness to be again on he streets.

J. A. Peters, the affable clerk of Tubbs Hotel, leaves on a brief trip to Monterey in a few days.

D. A. Dodge, the newsdealer, is acting as conductor on the Highland Park street railroad in the temporary absence of J. A. Oliver.

The bridge across the Highland Park Creek is almost repaired and it is expected that teams will be able to pass over it in a day or so.

At 2:30 o'clock yesterday a Chinese laundry wagon ran down East Fourteenth street toward Fruit Vale without a driver. No damage was done.

The examination of the young man, Hearther, for crime against nature took place today at 2 o'clock in Justice Mathews' court on East Twelfth street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward and daughters will leave in a few days from Tubbs Hotel to spend a few weeks in Monterey, Santa Barbara and Santa Cruz.

Three petitions were circulated among the business men of Twenty-third avenue by delegates from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, securing signatures to prevent granting a liquor license to Henry Obe.

Mission san Jose.
Irvington Express.

Miss Sullivan, teacher of the intermediate department of our school, left Saturday morning for her home in San Jose.

Rev. Mr. Madge of Haywards preached an eloquent sermon last Sunday evening at the school house. Mr. Maar will conduct the services next Sunday evening.

The Mission Public school closed last Friday with a very interesting entertainment at the A. O. U. W. Hall. That evening the hall was crowded and the lengthy programme, consisting of a mock trial, a farce, recitations, vocal and instrumental music, and a fan drill was well carried out by the scholars. Much credit is due to both teachers and scholars for the success of the entertainment, the scholars having had no practice in that line for over two years. The Mission cornet band was present and favored the audience with several of their choice selections, and everything passed off pleasantly. After the entertainment the floor was cleared for dancing, which continued until an early hour the next morning. School will not be resumed until the first of February.

Alvarado.
Irvington Express.

Mrs. Butcan's painting class did not meet last Saturday.

George B. May of San Jose was at home last Saturday.

Samuel Poorman has received an appointment in the mint.

Ed. Harvey was in Oakland to be present at a class reunion at Chabot Observatory.

Mrs. Chauncey started Monday morning on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Farley of Gilroy.

A. E. Richmond was sick nearly all of last week. Mrs. Brooks took his place in the postoffice.

The farmers say much good has been done by the deposit of sediment and the killing of gophers.

The water this week has been so high that up to present writing it has been impossible to have school.

Two more of our young men have left us. Hugh and Guy Dwyer have gone to Fresno to go into the storekeeping business.

The section men were kept busy watching and repairing the track, both above and below the depot, to keep it from being washed away.

Work on the sugar mill will be brough in a few days. It is estimated that about three hundred tons of beets are now out in the fields, and cannot possibly be got for this season.

Mount Eden.
Haywards Journal.

Boat riding is still popular at Alvarado.

William and Theo Westphal and Miss Billie Westphal of Oakland were visiting at the residence of A. W. Shafer Sunday.

We reported last week that there would be Christmas exercises at the church. Miss Roxy Dennis informs us since that the exercises have been given up on account of the bad weather, which makes it impossible for many to attend.

The party given by the Mount Eden Social Club last Saturday evening in Petermann's Hall was a fine affair. The evening, for a wonder, was clear as a bell, though a trifle frosty, and the hall was crowded with merry young people, who never had a more enjoyable time. Merino Brothers furnished superb music. The entire affair was a great credit to this popular social club. Those attending were: Miss Mary Michelsen, Miss Christina Wrede, Miss Tillie Wrede, Miss Lena Gading, Miss Emma Eichler, Miss Billie Eichler, Miss Bertha Gading, Miss Millie Gading, Miss Annie Oberfuller, Miss Minnie Petermann, Miss Jamie Petermann, Miss Emma Schafer, Miss Minnie Schafer, Miss Annie Bothsow, Miss Lillie Westphal of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Knox, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Graham, Haywards; Henry Schafer, John Penke, John Ohlsen, William Owen, J. Gading Jr., Chris. Gading, Willie Johnson, Peter Lund, H. Bothsow, Fred Wrede, August Frank, Fred Petermann, Philip Zumstein, John Ludwig, F. Buck, H. Petermann Jr., Louis Dollner, Haywards; Fred Lowrie, Centerville; Grant Wilson, Santa Clara; William and Theodore Westphal, Oakland; Harry Knox, San Leandro; Charles Ruppricht, Haywards; Fred Lenzel, San Lorenzo.

Centerville.
Irvington Express.

Fred Wisman has had a return of his old trouble and is quite sick.

Charles Sutherland has been under the doctor's care, but is now better.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes have returned from their much enjoyed visit to Fresno.

Mrs. A. Dewy of Idaho, niece of H. Bracker, is making her relatives a visit.

Mr. Hawkenson and daugbter were in town visiting Rev. T. G. Crump and wife, this week.

On Friday A. M. a slight earthquake was felt so slight, however, as not to be noticed by many.

Henry Crosby is laying the pipe that connects the Presbyterian parsonage with the Spring Valley water.

The rain has shown up our roads in good style. The roadmaster will have no trouble in picking out just the places to be repaired.

The rain this year has rather given Centerville more than her share, the amount for the season being 16.26 up to Tuesday morning. This is more than either Newark or Niles show. After a few clear, cold days the wind has again found her favorite quarter, and bids fair to give us more.

The Sewing Society at Mrs. Crothers' was well attended in spite of the rain. Owing to the absence of the treasurer no statement was given, but it was understood that the ladies have some $250 on their bank account. The next meeting will be held in the middle of January, when they will reorganize.

H. Overacker Jr. visited the Haywards Fruit Union on Saturday. He comes home quite bewildered when he tries to choose among the many different washes recommended and the spray pipes used. The orchardists would be glad to find one that will do all claimed. While examining the scale under the microscope one of our fruit growers found the tiny parasite that Mr. Barry has mentioned. It is so small that it can scarcely be seen by the naked eye. Could not the size of the animal be increased by gentle persuasion? It seems as if it would take a long time for this tiny creature to perform the herculean work before it.

San Leandro.

Daniel Best returned Saturday evening from a trip to Fresno.

Miss Belle Price of Oakland is visiting at the residence of W. B. Price.

Miss Cushing of Oakland was the guest of the Misses Nugent last week.

Mrs. J. Cahill died at her residence on Monday morning after a lingering illness. The funeral was held from the Catholic Church on Tuesday. The deceased leaves six sons.

The stock of goods in G. F. Birley's store was sold on Monday by Constable Gallett in a lump to Hermann Schleuter for $270 to satisfy a judgment of $92.96 in favor of Adeldorf & Brandenstein.

The Young Men's Institute, No. 91, of San Leandro gave a successful ball in St. Joseph's Hall on Friday evening last. The evening being fine the attendance was exceedingly large. At midnight a bountiful repast was partaken of at the Estudillo House, after which dancing was again resumed at the hall and continued till daybreak, when all departed well pleased with the night's enjoyment. Over sixty couples participated in the grand march, which was led by W. Oakes and Mrs Ella Smith. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Price, Mr. and Mrs. F. Victor, Mr. and Mrs. C. Iversen, Mrs. N. Hansen, Mrs. Washburne, Mrs. Dexter, Miss N. O'Connell, Miss N. Halversen, Miss Etta Dexter, Miss Katie O'Connell, Miss Nichols, Miss K. Haywards
Journal.

We regret to learn that Frank Noyer is confined to his home with sickness this week.

Christmas tree services will be held in the M. E. Church on Christmas eve. All cordially invited.

Mrs. George P. Carpenter, Monday, sold to Andrew Ramage lots 14 and 17 in Pearceville for $500.

Martin Tunneson of Crow Canyon reports the road out his way in good condition notwithstanding the heavy rains.

Charley Collins commenced Monday on the new cottage of Dennis Mulverhill on his property on B street. The rain Tuesday laid the boys off for the present.

Services will be held in the Episcopal Church on Christmas day, December 25th, and Christmas tree on Thursday evening, December 26th. All are cordially invited.

Mark Meyer of Salinas was visiting his brother, Ben F. Meyer, this week. Mr. Meyer is at the head of the Los Burros Mining Company, which has discovered rich gold prospects near that city, and he informed us that it promised to develop astonishing results.

Charles Hill and F. A. Anderson of Lockport, N. Y., arrived in Haywards last week. Mr. Hill is a brother to our townsman, Otis Hill, and the brothers have not met for nearly twenty years. Mr. Anderson is out here on a visit to relatives who reside at Napa. Both gentlemen are among the solid men of Lockport, and there is hope that they may yet make California their home.

At a regular meeting of the board of directors of the Native Sons' Hall Association on Friday last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, C. S. Long; vice-president, W. E. Meek; secretary, Thomas B. Russell; treasurer, A. G. Roberts. No decision as to the lighting of the hall was arrived at. A special committee was appointed to investigate the matter of lighting by gas, to report at the next meeting. The matter of dedicating the hall on the Fourth of July was considered appropriate.

The children of the Congregational Church Sunday school are on tip-toe. Last Sunday a committee of six ladies was appointed to take charge of Christmas eve tea for the scholars of the Sunday school. They have already started in to work and the children may count upon a feast. Tickets will be distributed to the Sunday school next Sunday. Tea will begin at 5 P. M., December 24th. After tea the work of another committee will come into view in the shape of a well loaded Xmas tree. After tea the doors of the school room will be thrown open, and all, whether members of the school or not, will be admitted.

Livermore.
Herald.

The first snow of the season has appeared on the summits of the Livermore mountains.

The first lot of fruit trees for the season arrived this week. They were for Major Clay.

Charles Ginger killed a deer on the Arroya Valle, near the Pope place, on the 15th—the last day.

Master Charles Wegener is assistant chief engineer for Henry C. Langrehr, who is county surveyor of San Diego.

John S. Brown has purchased of Bartlett & Greenebaum lots 1 and 2, in block 17, northern addition, for $230.

Edward McKeany Jr. fell from a gum tree on Monday, and striking in the fall, nearly severed his right ear from his head.

A social dance will be given at Hans Krogh's place of business on Front street, Saturday evening, December 28th.

The rainfall last season—the heaviest for many years—was 15.69 inches. This season, with five months in which to expect rain, it is already 12.07 inches.

Charles A. Wetmore has not yet picked his olive crop. The trees are fairly well loaded, though some of them have not as many olives as last year.

Charles A. Wetmore shipped four carloads—about ten thousand gallons—of his high type wine this week. Three carloads went to C. C. McIver of Mission San Jose.

John Aylward is finishing up a lot of 150 of his automatic gates. He has secured the services of A. L. Thomas of this place as a general traveling agent, who will start out as soon as the weather becomes settled.

P. C. Waltenbaugh desires us to state that he has not retired from the field of the Postoffice fight. He is still a candidate for the position and considers that his record as a soldier during the late war entitles him to as much consideration as that of any of his competitors.

John Aylward is preparing to build hay presses on the first of January. He proposes to have thirteen ready for the market by the 1st of May. This will give employment to quite a number of men for the four months, at least, and possibly longer, as he will probably continue building throughout the season.

J. M. Davis returned from a trip to Sonoma and Napa counties last week. He went to make a report on a large property. Mr. Davis states that the phylloxera is making rapid progress in both counties and is rapidly exterminating the vineyards. He thinks it is only a question of a few years when all will be destroyed.

Eugene Allen has been engaged by Marshal Thomas to keep the streets of the town free from stock, and he has already landed one lot of cows in the pound. It is to be hoped that this will not be necessary again; but Marshal Thomas states that he will enforce the law if he is compelled to keep the pound full all the time.

I. Horton, president; E. C. Newell, vice president; F. A. Anthony, secretary; H. H. Pitcher, treasurer; George E. Kennedy, chairman of entertainment committee. The above are the name and officers of a new society organized to furnish a series of winter evening entertainments, of four popular lectures and one entertainment, to commence on or about December 20th. The following lectures have already been selected: Rev. Dr. C. V. Anthony of San Francisco, "The Sun and Surroundings, or a Bird's Eye View of Astronomy," Rev. Dr. Francis Horton, Oakland; Rev. Dr. E. R. Dille, Oakland, "The Man Who Wins."

For sometime past McLeod and Waterman have been much annoyed by the acts of a number of boys at one of the hay barns on College avenue, which they have under lease. The padlocks were picked and carried away, fires were built near by for the purpose of roasting eggs taken from a neighboring stable, and a general reign of mischief inaugurated. No matter how well locked the great doors might be they were repeatedly opened, and during the recent storm were left swinging in the while the rain beat in on the hay. The boys had repeatedly been told to keep away from the premises, but they persisted in their visits. Last Saturday Acting Marshal George V. Taylor, accompanied by Louis Waterman, arrested six boys at the warehouse and on an order of Justice Taylor they were placed in the town jail. They were brought before the justice later, and after a good fatherly lecture were discharged.

Thomas Driver, a builder of combined harvesters, who has until last season been associated with Daniel Best of San Leandro, is looking for a location for a manufactory. He has had several proposals from towns and firms, and in response to a letter from a citizen of this place, came to Livermore last Tuesday. His attention was called to the advantages which our town possesses for such an institution, several of which he recognized at once. He asks either a bonus or the organization of a joint stock company. The exact form of the terms upon which he will locate here will be shown in a letter, which will be received in the course of a few days. If we desire to meet those terms it must be done, or at least decided upon, at once. He has an offer from a locality in Oakland and another from San Francisco. Mr. Driver proposes to give employment this year to from ten to fifteen men at an average of $3 per day.

Another Supposed Murder Bordering Upon the Selvage Edge of White Chapel.

A heavy trunk was to have been moved from 203 Eighth street yesterday, and when the Express Company called for it they noticed a terrible obnoxious smell. Their curiosity was at once aroused, and the driver suggested opening the trunk. "Youst youse look a letle oudt," was heard from the owner "Dot vas mine Limberger cheese dot youse smell, undt I vant mind drunk checked to Germany." "We check baggage to all parts of the United States," replied the driver of the Whitney Standard & Oakland Transfer Company. Their office is 422 Ninth street.

MY HEADACHE IS CURED.

That's What D. Hyman of 1063 Broadway Says.

For years I have suffered with sick headache, gastric acidity of stomach with great distress after eating, and constipation. I doctored, and dieted all that time and no relief. Some three months ago I began treatment with Dr. Bluett of 1069 Broadway Oakland. From the first week's treatment I have no more headache or distress and am enjoying splendid health. D. Hyman, with Salinger Brothers, 1063 Broadway

Encyclopedias Given Away.

The popular dry goods firm of J. S. Gilmore & Co., Thirteenth and Washington streets, are out with a very liberal offer to their patrons. They have purchased 500 copies of "Bradbury's Encyclopedia of Practical Information," which they propose to distribute among their patrons in the following manner: Every purchaser will be given a ticket and the amount of their purchase each time will be punched on it, and when the entire ticket is used they will present the holder with a copy of the encyclopedia, which is a large book of almost 800 pages, nicely bound and is a very useful, as well as ornamental, article.

He Once Lived Here.

The discharged soldier who committed suicide near the Benicia barracks, on Thursday last was at one time a resident of this city, but despondency caused him to wander away and finally he enlisted in the army. He became very despondent after living here for several years by discovering that he missed great bargains by not buying his meat at A. C. Reed's meat market at the corner of Seventeenth and Telegraph avenue. This is the best place in the city to buy turkeys or meat for the holidays, and customers may be always sure of prompt attention and the very finest meats the market affords.

A Good Resolution.

This is about the time of the year when the young man about town makes his good resolutions for the coming year. Not to drink and not to smoke are chestnuts with hoary beards, but one good resolution which he will stick to will be that after the first of January next he will never patronize any other tailor but Joe Lancaster, at the corner of Tenth and Washington streets, who makes the most famous clothes in the world.

Christmas Presents.

Christmas comes but once a year, and yet many people are puzzled what to buy their husband, wife or friend for a Christmas present. It is better to purchase something useful, and what is more useful than a good watch that will keep good time? For instance one of John Frey's elegant watches would make a lovely present; he has a large stock, both of ladies' and gents' watches, valuable diamonds and a complete line of jewelry purchased especially for the holidays. Remember the number, 1768 Seventh street.

A Sensational Divorce.

Mrs Rose Rothvill, one of the upper ten, formerly of 2246 Madison street, today began proceedings for a divorce from L. H. Rothvill, alleging transferred affection. In August he sold to Lyon & Company, the largest firm of auctioneers in Oakland, his elegant furniture for $6728, and Mrs. Rothvill also sues to receive that amount and alimony from him.

Honesty and Fair Dealings

Keeps two double teams and a one-horse wagon busy delivering solid comfort in the shape of parlor and bedroom suits, toys, holiday presents. Come and see our assortment of goods, suitable for rich and poor. We must sell "em" before the holidays. Bring your children, all little ones under 3 receive a present at H. Schellhaas', 408 Eleventh street.

Eastern and European Hats.

Meyer & Williams are large importers; and the only manufacturing hatters in Oakland. They have just received a large invoice of Eastern and European hats of the latest styles and shapes. They make a specialty of silk hats, at 869 Broadway.

Holiday Wines.

What is Christmas dinner without fine wine on the table, good brandy in the pudding? The best line of California wines and brandies for family use can be had at J. P. Rohrback & Co., 1720 Seventh street.

HEALTH HINTS.

Some Suggestions Regarding The Treatment of Coughs And Colds.

A cold is usually the symptoms of some disease, the character of the cough denotes the nature of the disease. A cough should never be suppressed but the disease cured, then the cough will stop itself. The most common disease that causes coughing, is a cold When a person takes cold, many of the air cells of the lungs become obstructed with mucus, the coughing is an effort of nature to relieve the lungs and that is the first and most important thing to be done in treating a cold. The lungs should be relieved and the secretions opened, which is the best accomplished by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is the only preparation in use that will cause the expulsion of mucus from the air cells of the lungs. It also renders the mucus less tenacious and easier to expectorate and opens the secretions, aiding nature in relieving the lungs and freeing the system of all morbid matter, effectually curing the cold. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and is the only preparation in common use that does. Nature's way is to open the secretions, render the mucus less tenacious and easier to expectorate and relieve the lungs and that is precisely the effect of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. You ask: "How do we know that is nature's way?" Because if your system is strong enough to stand it nature, will in time relieve it of the cold without the aid of any medicine and that is just the way it goes about it, but many an "iron constitution" has been severely racked by leaving nature alone and unaided to do the work. No one can afford to neglect a cold, as catarrh and chronic bronchitis are caused by neglected colds.

Diogenes Has Sailed.

Diogenes, C. P., has at last found water enough in the streets to float his tub and he has sailed away new countries for to see. On his return he will tell in THE TRIBUNE what his discoveries have been. There is one thing certain however. He cannot find a better place in the world to buy fall and winter suits than at O'Connor's well known establishment, 1010 Broadway, and he will say so in his next letter.

Coal.

A present made of your order if it does not hold out weight or if you do not get the kind of coal you buy at the Old Reliable Coal Yard. M. M. Don't forget the place, and try him.

Stewart Is Popular.

The best place in the city to get a fine turkey or meat for the holidays is at the Clinton Market, 311 East Twelfth street, East Oakland. M. J. Stewart, the proprietor, has a splendid stock on hand and the beauty of trading with him is that his meats will be found to be always the best in the market.

The Place to Get Your Fruit.

For a fine assortment of choice fruit go to H. A. McClelland, 578 Twelfth street, East Oakland, who always carries a good supply of all kinds of berries, apricots, peaches, plums and everything the market affords; also a complete stock of vegetables. Telephone 383, four bells.

Notice of Application for Street Railroad Franchise.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, AS caused to be done by the Council of the City of Oakland by its resolution number 14,589, adopted Dec. 19, 1889, that the Brooklyn and Fruit Vale Railroad Company has made application to said Council for a street railroad franchise in said City of Oakland, Alameda County, State of California, over and along the routes specified and described as follows, to wit:

First—Beginning at the point of intersection of the centre line of Thirteenth avenue with the centre line of East Eleventh street; running thence easterly along East Eleventh street to a point in front of the lot seventy-five (75) feet by one hundred and fifty (150) feet owned and occupied by the Brooklyn and Fruit Vale Railroad Company; thence in a northerly direction by the most practicable curves and tangents through and across block number thirty-nine, Clinton, according to Higley's map thereof, of record in the County Recorder's office of said Alameda County, (said Clinton being now a part of the City of Oakland); then crossing East Twelfth street and through and over block B. B. in said Clinton, as shown by said map, to a point in the northern line of East Fourteenth street, distant thereon easterly two hundred and eighty-four (284) feet, more or less, from the southeastern line of Thirteenth avenue; thence northeasterly crossing all intervening streets, alleyways, thoroughfares and public highways, and upon a line parallel with said Thirteenth avenue to the northern line of East Twenty-second street and southern end of the strip of land conveyed by J. V. Webster and others to the Brooklyn and Fruit Vale Railroad Company by deed dated June 1st, 1875, and recorded in Liber 113 of Deeds, at page 206, of the records of said Alameda County; thence northeasterly on and along said strip of land and upon, over and across all intervening streets, thoroughfares, alleys and public highways by the most practicable curves and tangents to a place on said strip between Grant street and Clinton street; thence easterly across Fourteenth avenue and Clinton street by the most feasible curves and tangents to a point in the eastern boundary line of the Town of Lynn, formerly so called, now a part of the City of Oakland, distant thereon one hundred (100) feet, more or less, southerly from the southern line of the County Road Survey number eleven hundred and thirty-five (1135); thence easterly by the most practicable curves, tangents and route to a point therein one hundred and sixty (160) feet, more or less, easterly from the northerly projection of the eastern line of Beulah Park Tract; thence southerly, easterly and northerly by the most practicable curves, tangents and route to the eastern boundary of the City of Oakland at its intersection with the said County Road at or near the bridge at that place, and along and upon the route in said city particularly described as follows, to wit:

Second—Commencing at the point of intersection of the center line of Thirteenth avenue with the center line of East Eleventh street, and running thence northeasterly along the center line of Thirteenth avenue to the center line of East Twenty-second street; thence easterly by the most practicable curves and tangents over and across block number one hundred and forty (140), as the same is delineated and so designated upon said Higley's Map of the Town of Clinton, to a point on or near the southern line of East Twenty third street, at or near its intersection at that place with the strip of land above referred to as having been conveyed by J. V. Webster and others to The Brooklyn and Fruit Vale Railroad Company by deed dated June 1st. 1875 and recorded in Liber 113 of Deeds at page 206, of the records of Alameda County.

And that an offer is hereby made for said City Council to grant the franchise to the persons, company or corporation that shall agree to pay at the expiration of five years after said railroad is completed, and thereafter semiannually, the largest per centum of the gross receipts of such road according to a verified statement of the same.

Said Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids and may refuse to grant a franchise for the proposed routes, and in case no bids are made, may in its discretion grant a franchise for such period as may be deemed most expedient.

It is sought under said application to obtain the right in said franchise to operate upon such routes street cars, propelled by horses or mules—the term of which franchise is to be twenty-five years.

By order of the Council of the City of Oakland.

A MODERN CRUSADE

Reminiscences of the Ohio Agitation.

TEMPERANCE REVIVAL WANTED HERE

Resolute Wonder That the Heads Were Not Knocked Into Thirty Whisky Barrels.

Exercises in commemoration of the fifteenth anniversary of the temperance crusade were held at the First Methodist Church last evening under the direction of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Notwithstanding the storm which raged outside, the building was filled, among the audience being noticed a number of grayhaired people who had taken an active part in the crusade in Ohio fifteen years ago.

Mrs. R. R Johnston presided and announced the order of exercises.

After music by the prohibition quartet, singing by the congregation and prayer, Dr. Chapman was introduced to talk on the topic "Live Coals from the Crusade Altar." After making apologies for being late, which he attributed to the peculiar ways of communication between East Oakland and Central Oakland, he took up the subject. During the crusade he resided in Westville, a little town 12 miles distant from Columbus, Ohio, where saloons were never known, but notwithstanding the fact that there was no saloons or drinking people there a crusade was carried on. The crusaders did not go out and kneel in barrooms because there were no barrooms there, but they made frequent pilgrimages to Columbus, where they found plenty of work to do. Among some of the remarkable features of that crusade was the disappearance of those distinctions that are permitted here. There the wives of the most prominent men in town knelt side by side in the gutters with the wives of the poorest. Nobody could tell the difference there between the wife of the Governor and the wife of the hod carrier. It was a most remarkable thing, he said, to see the women and the men congregating at the church, and while the men remained behind and prayed the women would march the streets and kneel in the very gutters exporting the saloonkeeper to close his place of business. "I am proud that I was born in the United States of Ohio," said the speaker, "but not because of the action of the men on that occasion. I never felt such shame and contempt for man in my life. It is the only time I ever wished I had been born a woman. But there is something nearer home than all this that requires our attention, and it is right here in Oakland where the same state of affairs exists at the present time as led to that crusade movement fifteen years ago. During that crusade we prayed night and day. We prayed while we slept. But how was it made possible for women in all stations to spring right up and fight the saloons? What did it mean? Why it meant that the good men had combined against the crime and the family and that the good men failed to protect their homes. We all know that without the saloon the crusade would have been an impossibility. If the better class of men and women had not been faithful and true to their obligations toward their families the crusade could never have happened." The speaker thought that the Christian people are responsible for the condition of the saloon in Oakland today. It could not be that the saloons have the power here. It is cringing cowardice on the part of men that the very state of affairs that made the crusade exist in this city city today.

In a very dramatic manner the speaker told of his conception of the judgment day. He presented a word picture of it to the audience. For a background he saw jails and poorhouses and grog sellers, and on one side the cringing, cowering politician and legislator, the bribed judge and corrupt office holder, and on the other side he saw the widow and orphan and the drunkard. Then a mighty change would take place. The horror stricken grog sellers and politicians would sneak away, and at last the oppressed would triumph over all.

The following resolutions, which had been prepared by a committee of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, were read and a motion was made for their adoption:

1. Resolved, That the honored names of the Christian women who at Hillsboro, O., on the 23d of December, 1873, began the crusade against the saloons, should be held in everlasting remembrance; and we do solemnly wish that there might be such a revival of the cause of temperance as would result in another and similar crusade right here in Oakland and all over our State.

2. WHEREAS, The liquor traffic and the saloons are not only useless, but are curses to humanity and ruinous to the State; therefore

Resolved, That no license whatever should be granted to the sale of intoxicating drinks for common use; and the first duty the Government owes to the people is to wholly and forever abolish the traffic; therefore we will not cease our efforts until said traffic shall have been totally prohibited by law, both State and Federal.

3. During two or three days recently twenty-nine or thirty barrels of whisky were, in violation of a city ordinance, arc obstructions upon the sidewalk in front of a saloon near the postoffice; therefore be it

Resolved, That we are amazed at the forbearance of the good people of Oakland who did not take immediate and decided action to have the poison obstructions removed; and we wonder that they did not stave in a body and knock out the head of every barrel and empty the contents into the gutter.

4. WHEREAS, One of the highest duties of civil authorities is to protect all classes against the curse of the saloons, the greatest foes of virtue, morality, law, and order; therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby express our indignant condemnation of the habitual disregard shown to the hundreds of saloonkeepers, many of whom sell liquors without license, while others violate the plain ordinances of the municipality, and in defiance to positive law, and find apologists and defenders in the City Council.

Resolved, That we heartily commend the citizens and authorities of Berkeley and the faculty of the university for their aggressive work against the saloons which in violation of the State law were within a mile of the university buildings, and rejoice in the recent victory over the liquor power and the Berkeley saloons in their unlawful gains, and we do earnestly hope that the same State law will be enforced in the State capitol building, so as to prevent the recurrence of the disgraceful scenes which were witnessed within that building during the last session of the Legislature.

No action was taken on the resolutions.

Rev. Dr. Lathrop, of the Church of the Advent in East Oakland, was next called upon for remarks, but the Doctor was not present. He had become a victim to the poor street car service between Oakland and Brooklyn, and was then mired on the Twelfth street line. Finally, when the car did start it took him back to Brooklyn, and it was then too late to make a second start.

Dr. E. R. Dille then spoke. The people had come a great way since the crusade unfurled their banners in Ohio, and, but the seed they had sown blossomed out in the white ribbons of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union all over the world. A different now from what it was then. Then they wept, now they rejoice; then they said God be merciful, now they sing God rejoice; then they invaded in saloons, now they crusade in the legislature. The two Dakotas have come into the Union with prohibition in their platforms through the work of the crusaders. The crusade did not die like John Brown's body, but its soul still goes marching on and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the spirit. He spoke of the evils of licensing the liquor traffic. One political party says, "We won't put down the liquor traffic," and the other says, "We cannot put down the liquor traffic, although we put down the rebellion," therefore it is necessary to look again to the women to put it down. The speaker closed by saying that God Almighty will sweep away the liquor traffic, although it be done with the red blood of warfare.

A paper read by Mrs. Havens was written by Mrs. Dick, an original crusader, giving an account of the most important features of the crusade in Ohio.

Rev. Dr. Bentley spoke of the resolutions referring to the action of the Berkeley people, and declared it a beginning in the downfall of the nation that the State laws should not be enforced.

Rev. Mr. Hobart related several pathetic incidents connected with the crusade and urged those present to join hands in putting down what he called this curse upon mankind.

Other speeches were made by Rev. Mr. Allen of San Lorenzo and Rev. Dr. Erbert of the German Lutheran Church in this city, and the audience adjourned after singing "America."

The resolutions remained on the table.

THE THEATERS.

Christmas Attractions at the Holiday Season.

Clay M. Greene's idyl of the Adirondack, "Hans, the Boatman," will be given at the Oakland Theater this evening and tomorrow afternoon and evening. The play is a romantic and picturesque drama and contains some features particularly pleasing to children, though it is by no means a play for children only. The principal part is taken by Charles Arnold, a distinguished actor.

Manager Stilwell of the Oakland Theater has invited the carriers of THE TRIBUNE and the Enquirer to attend the performance of "Hans, the Boatman," this evening.

Matinee performances will be given at all the San Francisco theaters tomorrow afternoon.

Alfred Bonvier, manager of the Baldwin Theater, San Francisco, writes to THE TRIBUNE that he has definitely decided to have all evening performances at the Baldwin begin promptly at 8 o'clock and end in time for Oakland people to reach the 11 o'clock boat.

Mrs. Farrington, formerly Miss Alice Arrington, the pretty sister of the beautiful Marie Burroughs, will make her debut at the Oakland Theater in "Ranch Ten" with J. M. Ward and Carrie Clarke Ward.

Helen Blythe, classed as "the emotional actress," will play at the Oakland Theater on Friday and Saturday of this week.

A WAYWARD CHILD.

She Will Be Elected by Her Foster Mother.

Some twenty years ago Andrew Newland, now deceased, and his wife, Mary Newland, took from the orphan asylum a little child, Carrie Roundy. She was given a home in the Newland family, but was never legally adopted. According to the story of Mrs. Newland, Carrie, who is now Mrs. Burch, was a wayward child. After she married, Mrs. Newland gave her a home free of rent. Mrs. Burch recently claimed the property and refused to move when ordered. This afternoon Mrs. Newland was given a judgment in ejectment against Mrs Burch and her husband.

LIENS ON AN HOTEL.

Claims Against J. Macdonough for About $7000.

Pierce & Company have filed a mechanics' lien against J. Macdonough to recover $798. The claim is a lien upon the Albany Hotel. Several others have filed liens, aggregating some $7000.

Life in Redwood Canyon.

Yesterday afternoon John Mendoza, a young farmhand about 25 years of age was brought to the city prison and booked on the small book, the charge against him being assault with intent to commit rape.

For some time past Mendoza has been working for Joseph Perriera, a Portuguese rancher, whose lands are in Redwood canyon. Perriera says he employed Mendoza until he learned that the man had made an assault on his nine-year old daughter. Fearing that the girl would tell her father, Mendoza left the ranch and came to Oakland, where Perriera found him yesterday. Mendoza denies the charge against him and says that Perriera had him arrested on a like charge some time ago, but he was discharged. However, a Deputy Sheriff from Martinez came this morning and took the prisoner back to Contra Costa county with him.

Kindergarten Exercises.

Yesterday afternoon the holiday exercises of the kindergarten school, conducted by Mrs. Leland, were held at the schoolrooms, corner of Twelfth and Brush streets. The pupils, together with a select class taught by Mrs. Whitman, numbered about forty, and proficiency was manifested. This school has been in operation about three months, and it has demonstrated that children of kindergarten age, say 3 to 6 years are capable of much more culture than is generally supposed. The games and exercises are all of an instructive, though in the main of a playful nature, and the calisthenics are conducive to physical development. After the very interesting programme and the distribution of presents, a folding door was opened and the little students were marched in and seated around a table spread with a bountiful luncheon. This part of the exercises was a complete surprise to the children, and added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. There was a large attendance of visitors, who seemed to wish they were children ones more.

West Oakland.

The Standard Oil Company's brick storehouses on Cedar street are nearly completed.

The California Door Factory has closed till after the holidays.

Harbor Lodge 253 of Odd Fellows will meet at Fraternity Hall tomorrow evening.

Jagels & Wulff, the grocers, at the corner of Fifth and William streets, are making some additional improvements to their building.

All incoming trains were late yesterday.

The Sewers Carrying Off the Water.

Sanitary Inspector Smith reports the city's sewer system in a good condition, notwithstanding the heavy storms of the past few days. The sewers are all flowing freely, and are able to carry off all the surface water that reaches them. On San Pablo avenue, near Thirtieth street, two catch basins are choked and causing considerable inconvenience, but these will be fixed as soon as the street gang can get around to it.

Corned Beef Instead of Turkey.

The familiar features of Annie Crabtree were noticed in the police court dock this morning where she had been many times before. She pleaded guilty to being drunk and was fined $20 or ten days in jail. As a result she will enjoy the holidays with her friends behind the bars.

Laid Up for Christmas.

The small son of Thomas Upton, residing on Peralta street, while playing yesterday fell down and broke his left arm near the elbow.

William Burke, who lives at 1670 Atlantic street, tripped on the railroad track yesterday and fell down, breaking four ribs.

DR. WOOLSEY'S HOSPITAL.

The Doctor Himself a Disabled Inmate for a Few Days Past.

Prominent among the patients in Dr. Woolsey's hospital just at present is no less a personage than Dr. Woolsey himself. The Doctor has been confined to his bed for the past two or three days from the effects of a severe cold, but he believes that the ailment is nothing worse and hopes to be around again in a few days. Meanwhile, during Dr. Woolsey's disability, the hospital is under the care of Dr. A. W. Taylor, and the patients give assurance of the best possible treatment.

The latest addition to the list of disabled inmates at the hospital is Oscar Okerbeck, who has just been transported from Redding. He was engaged in moving huge piles, when one slipped and rolled on his leg, causing a serious compound fracture between the right knee and ankle. He has suffered greatly from the injury, and though the fracture is a bad one, it is hoped the full use of the limb will be preserved.

L. Meibert, whose knee was badly crushed by wheels at the pier several days ago, is progressing as rapidly as could be expected.

WANT AN ACCOUNTING.

The Sisters of J. H. Smythe Are Complaining.

When J. H. Smythe died in this county he left an estate valued at $18,321. The deceased did not leave a will and his widow, S. Gertrude Smythe, was appointed administratrix of his estate. Smythe left no issue, and his estate is community property. He has two sisters in San Francisco, Anne Rogers and Catherine Lyons, who, under the law, are entitled to one quarter of his estate. They filed a complaint in court asserting that the widow has failed to make an account of her trust to the court, and on their representation a citation has been issued directing the widow to appear in court next Monday and to show cause why she should not account.

MRS. WOODWORTH'S NEW TENT

No "Influence" to be Exercised Until Sunday Next.

No services will be held by Mrs. Woodworth this week, as the new tent will not be ready until next Friday. It is expected to have it erected by Saturday night, so that the services may be held Sunday.

The tent will be 180 feet in length and 120 in width, with a seating capacity of 3500 people. The Christmas service which had been arranged to be held tomorrow will probably be postponed unless the committee can procure a large hall, which they are trying to do. Several of the smaller churches have been offered them, but they are not large enough.

With Their Compliments.

Ames & Derrick, manufacturers of bags, burlaps, tents and camp furniture, of San Francisco have issued a very handsome calendar for 1890, illustrated with a fine photogravure of allegorical form.

Necrology.

The funeral of Nellie Towns, who died on Sunday last at 617 East Twelfth street, will be held tomorrow at 1 P. M., at the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

The Postoffice on Christmas.

The Postoffice will be open tomorrow from 9 to 10 A. M., and the carriers will make one delivery of mail matter. Remember the carrier when he rings your bell.

ONE WEEK TO PAY.

Taxes Will Be Delinquent After Monday Next.

City, county, and State taxes will be delinquent after 6 o'clock on Monday evening next. At present over $100,000 is still outstanding for city taxes, but a greater portion of this amount is expected within the present week, with the exception of the tax bills on the Adams estate, which as yet have not been called for. The taxes are largely distributed among owners of small pieces of property. Some of these may not be aware of the approach of the time when an additional 5 per cent will be added to their tax bills, and unless they make haste they are liable to find their possessions taken away from them by the tax title sharks.

A WOMAN'S PRIVILEGE.

Mrs. Perrin Changes Her Mind About Obeying a Subpœna.

The suit of Adelaide Perrin against Mary Perrin, which has been pending in the courts for many months, still remains undecided. A short time ago the attorney for the defendant wanted the case tried, but he could not get the plaintiff into court. She was served with a subpœna but she refused to answer the call. A few days ago Attorney Robinson asked that a bench warrant be issued for her arrest for disobeying the subpœna. Mrs. Perrin heard of this tactic, and, becoming alarmed, she called upon Mr. Robinson and asked him not to have her arrested and promised to come into court next Monday morning. The attorney, relying on her promise, did not take out the warrant and thereby the lady escaped spending a few days in the county jail.

THE POSTOFFICE.

Mr. Perigo in Great Danger of Being Buried by Packages.

People who do not get inside of the Oakland Postoffice have no idea of the amount of work the carriers and distributors have to do. Last evening a reporter ventured behind the scenes of the Postoffice department, and found the whole of the back room full of Christmas packages. O. E. Perigo, the distributor, was seen for a moment in the midst of the pile of accumulated packages, working as hard as he could to keep above board. The packages were coming in at a rapid rate, and the last seen of Perigo nothing but his head was visible.

THRICE THE ANGEL CALLED.

Three Deaths in Dr. Heacock's Family During One Year.

The funeral of May Adele Heacock, daughter of Rev. Dr. H. J. Heacock, took place at the residence of the parents in East Oakland this afternoon and was very largely attended. The officiating clergymen were Dr. Jewell of San Jose, and Dr. Dille and Bentley of this city.

Miss Heacock was a native of Oscoola, Ia., 26 years of age, and a most estimable young lady, beloved by all who knew her.

This is the third time that the blight of death has fallen upon Dr. Heacock's home within one year. A son and two daughters have been taken.

KEHOE NOT CRAZY.

He Stole Liquor on the Quiet and Got Drunk.

Peter Kehoe was examined by the Lunacy Commissioners this morning and discharged from custody, being not a fit subject for an asylum. The testimony showed that Kehoe had stolen some liquor and got drunk. He acted strangely and his relatives, not being aware that he had been drinking, caused his arrest. Kehoe promised Judge Gibson that he will never drink liquor again, and asserted that he would join Father McNally's temperance society.

Cheaper Than Dice Shaking.

The two men, Boyle and Klein, arrested at the Union Hotel for shaking dice just after Chief Tompkins's turkey raffle order was put into force, had their bail reduced to $10 this morning, which was promptly forfeited.

Something for the New Year.

The world renowned success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and their continued popularity for over a third of a century as a stomachic, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by The Hostetter Company, Pittsburgh, Pa., under their own immediate supervision, employing 60 hands in that department. They are running about 11 months in the year on this work, and the issue of same for 1890 will not be less than ten millions, printed in the English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages. Refer to a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, amusement, varied information, astronomical calculations and chronological items, &c., which can be depended on for correctness. The Almanac for 1890 can be obtained free of cost, from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER does not contain Alum, Ammonia or Lime, or any adulterant. R. S. G. PATON, Ph. D., Chemist for the United States Government.

The Cream of Tartar used in DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER is the strongest and free from all lime and other impurities. Prof. PETER COLLIER, Chief Chemist for the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

I have several times examined baking powders in the market to determine their purity, rising power and influence on the health of those using them. I have uniformly found Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder the best in all respects. In raising power it stands at the head. It is a pure, clean, elegant and healthful preparation. I have used "Price's" in my family for years.—Prof. R. C. KEDZIE, Late President Michigan State Board of Health.

The Waltz Safe is absolutely fire proof. The Waltz Safe is entirely damp proof. It is fire, fall and thief resisting. It is the only safe worth refilling after a fire. It is not the cheapest safe in the market, when compared by size only—it is the cheapest safe when all of its merits are considered. Bear in mind that, ordinarily, the purchase of a safe is for a lifetime, therefore seek the best and avoid one that is offered on its merit of cheapness only.
